44th Annual St. Mary's Bazaar was great! A big "Thank You," to our Bazaar Chairs Renee Schwebach & Monica Kleindl, for taking on this event! Thanks also to Jamie Van Eps, Anita Marty, Beth Erickson and Steph Kleindl for chairing the kitchen. Thanks to all the Craft ladies who work so hard most of the year round, and for everyone who helped in the kitchen. Jan Monson for chairing the making of the Chicken Wild Rice Soup. Thanks to Barb Spaulding for chairing the Catholic United Financial Raffle! Totals of what was profited will be published in next week's bulletin. Good Job!

Bazaar Raffle: A list of prize winners is postered, in the back of church, and there is a printed list you can take home with you, on the tables behind the pews. Thanks to everyone for participating!

Unclaimed Pans: There are several unclaimed pans left in the kitchen. Check the shelf above the coat racks on the S. side of the church in the vestibule. If not claimed soon, they will be donated.

Celebrate All Saints Day, next Sunday, Nov. 1st, with the 3rd-5th Grade Faith Formation Students: Each of the 3rd-5th graders will be dressed up as a special saint and will share about their saint in a live performance during refreshment time following Mass. Everyone is welcome!

Candles will be lit in November in memory of those who have died and had funerals at St. Mary's or chose to be buried at St. Mary's Cemetery: Russell Larson, James Quakenbush, Mary Marlow, Sharon Henrichs, Fr. Stan Wieser, Benny Miller, Rose Kaley, Elizabeth Shea Ryan, Janet Faith Bowman, Lori Leuthardt, Greg Grossman, Lillian Ritter, Diane Aeikens, Suzanne Ritter, Pat Quakenbush, Millard Raph, Sandy Tubbs and Gary VanDerBeek.
