During this course we will spend a short time in the classroom discussing proper grip, stance, sight alignment and trigger control. Dry fire and live fire will consist of working on drawing from a holster and presenting the pistol on target as well as reloading with spare magazines and working on clearing malfunctions. Students should be familiar with how their firearm works and be able to hit a torso size target. In this class you will need a good strong side outside the waistband holster and belt. 150 rounds of ammunition and at least 2 magazines.

No Appendix Holsters!
