

NO PLACE

Sometimes home is not a place, it's a person

A film by Holly Adams

NO PLACE

A crime thriller road picture where Badlands meets The Wizard of Oz and has a foursome with Thelma and Louise. A Multi Generational Cult Classic.

LOGLINE

Two desperate teen fugitives flee their abusive homes trying to outrun the law until they discover that the home they seek is within each other.

SYNOPSIS

ACT I

After committing a heinous crime to avenge the years of abuse she tolerated at his hands, 15 year old Willow escapes with her father's pistol and cash.

Meantime, 17 year old Joe has accidentally poisoned his obese mother and though he is flat broke, he's got a Mickey Mantle Baseball card worth millions. They chance upon each other at a gas station and together flee their horrendous pasts heading west.

ACT 2

With the law, Joe's landlord and Willow's Uncles hot on their heels, the distraught teens disguise themselves as newlyweds to great effect. Despite his resistance, Joe recognizes himself in Willow when he discovers that they are both on the run from abusive home lives yet still hold out hope for a brighter future.

ACT 3

Joe vows to buy themselves a home of their own with the money from the Mickey Mantle. But just yards away from the baseball card convention where they can cash in the Mickey, the law guns them down. Through their ordeal, the teens discover the inexplicable resilience of life and that there is truly no place like home.

DIRECTOR'S STATEMENT

No Place is a raw and edgy, fast-paced ride into eternity and back again. Set in a white trash world against the mystical ambience of the road. There is a spiritual undertone where no matter how bad it gets, there is always just a glimmer of light within the darkness.

No Place has the vibes of a 90s road picture nostalgic for the 50s. The film gives a visual wink to the cinematic genius of Quentin Tarantino, the breathtaking landscapes of Terence Malik and the dreamlike wonder found in The Wizard of Oz.
