

NO PLACE

Sometimes home is not a place, it's a person

A film by Holly Adams

LOGLINE

Two desperate teen fugitives flee their abusive homes trying to outrun the law until they discover that the home they seek is within each other.

SYNOPSIS

A woman with long brown hair, wearing a red jacket over a light blue shirt and dark pants, is leaning against the rear of a white classic car. The car has a license plate that reads "39H YDF". In the background, there is a gas station with a sign showing "1.32". The scene is set at dusk or dawn, with a dark sky and some ambient lighting from the gas station.

ACT I

After committing a heinous crime to avenge the years of abuse she tolerated at his hands, 15 year old Willow escapes with her father's pistol and cash.

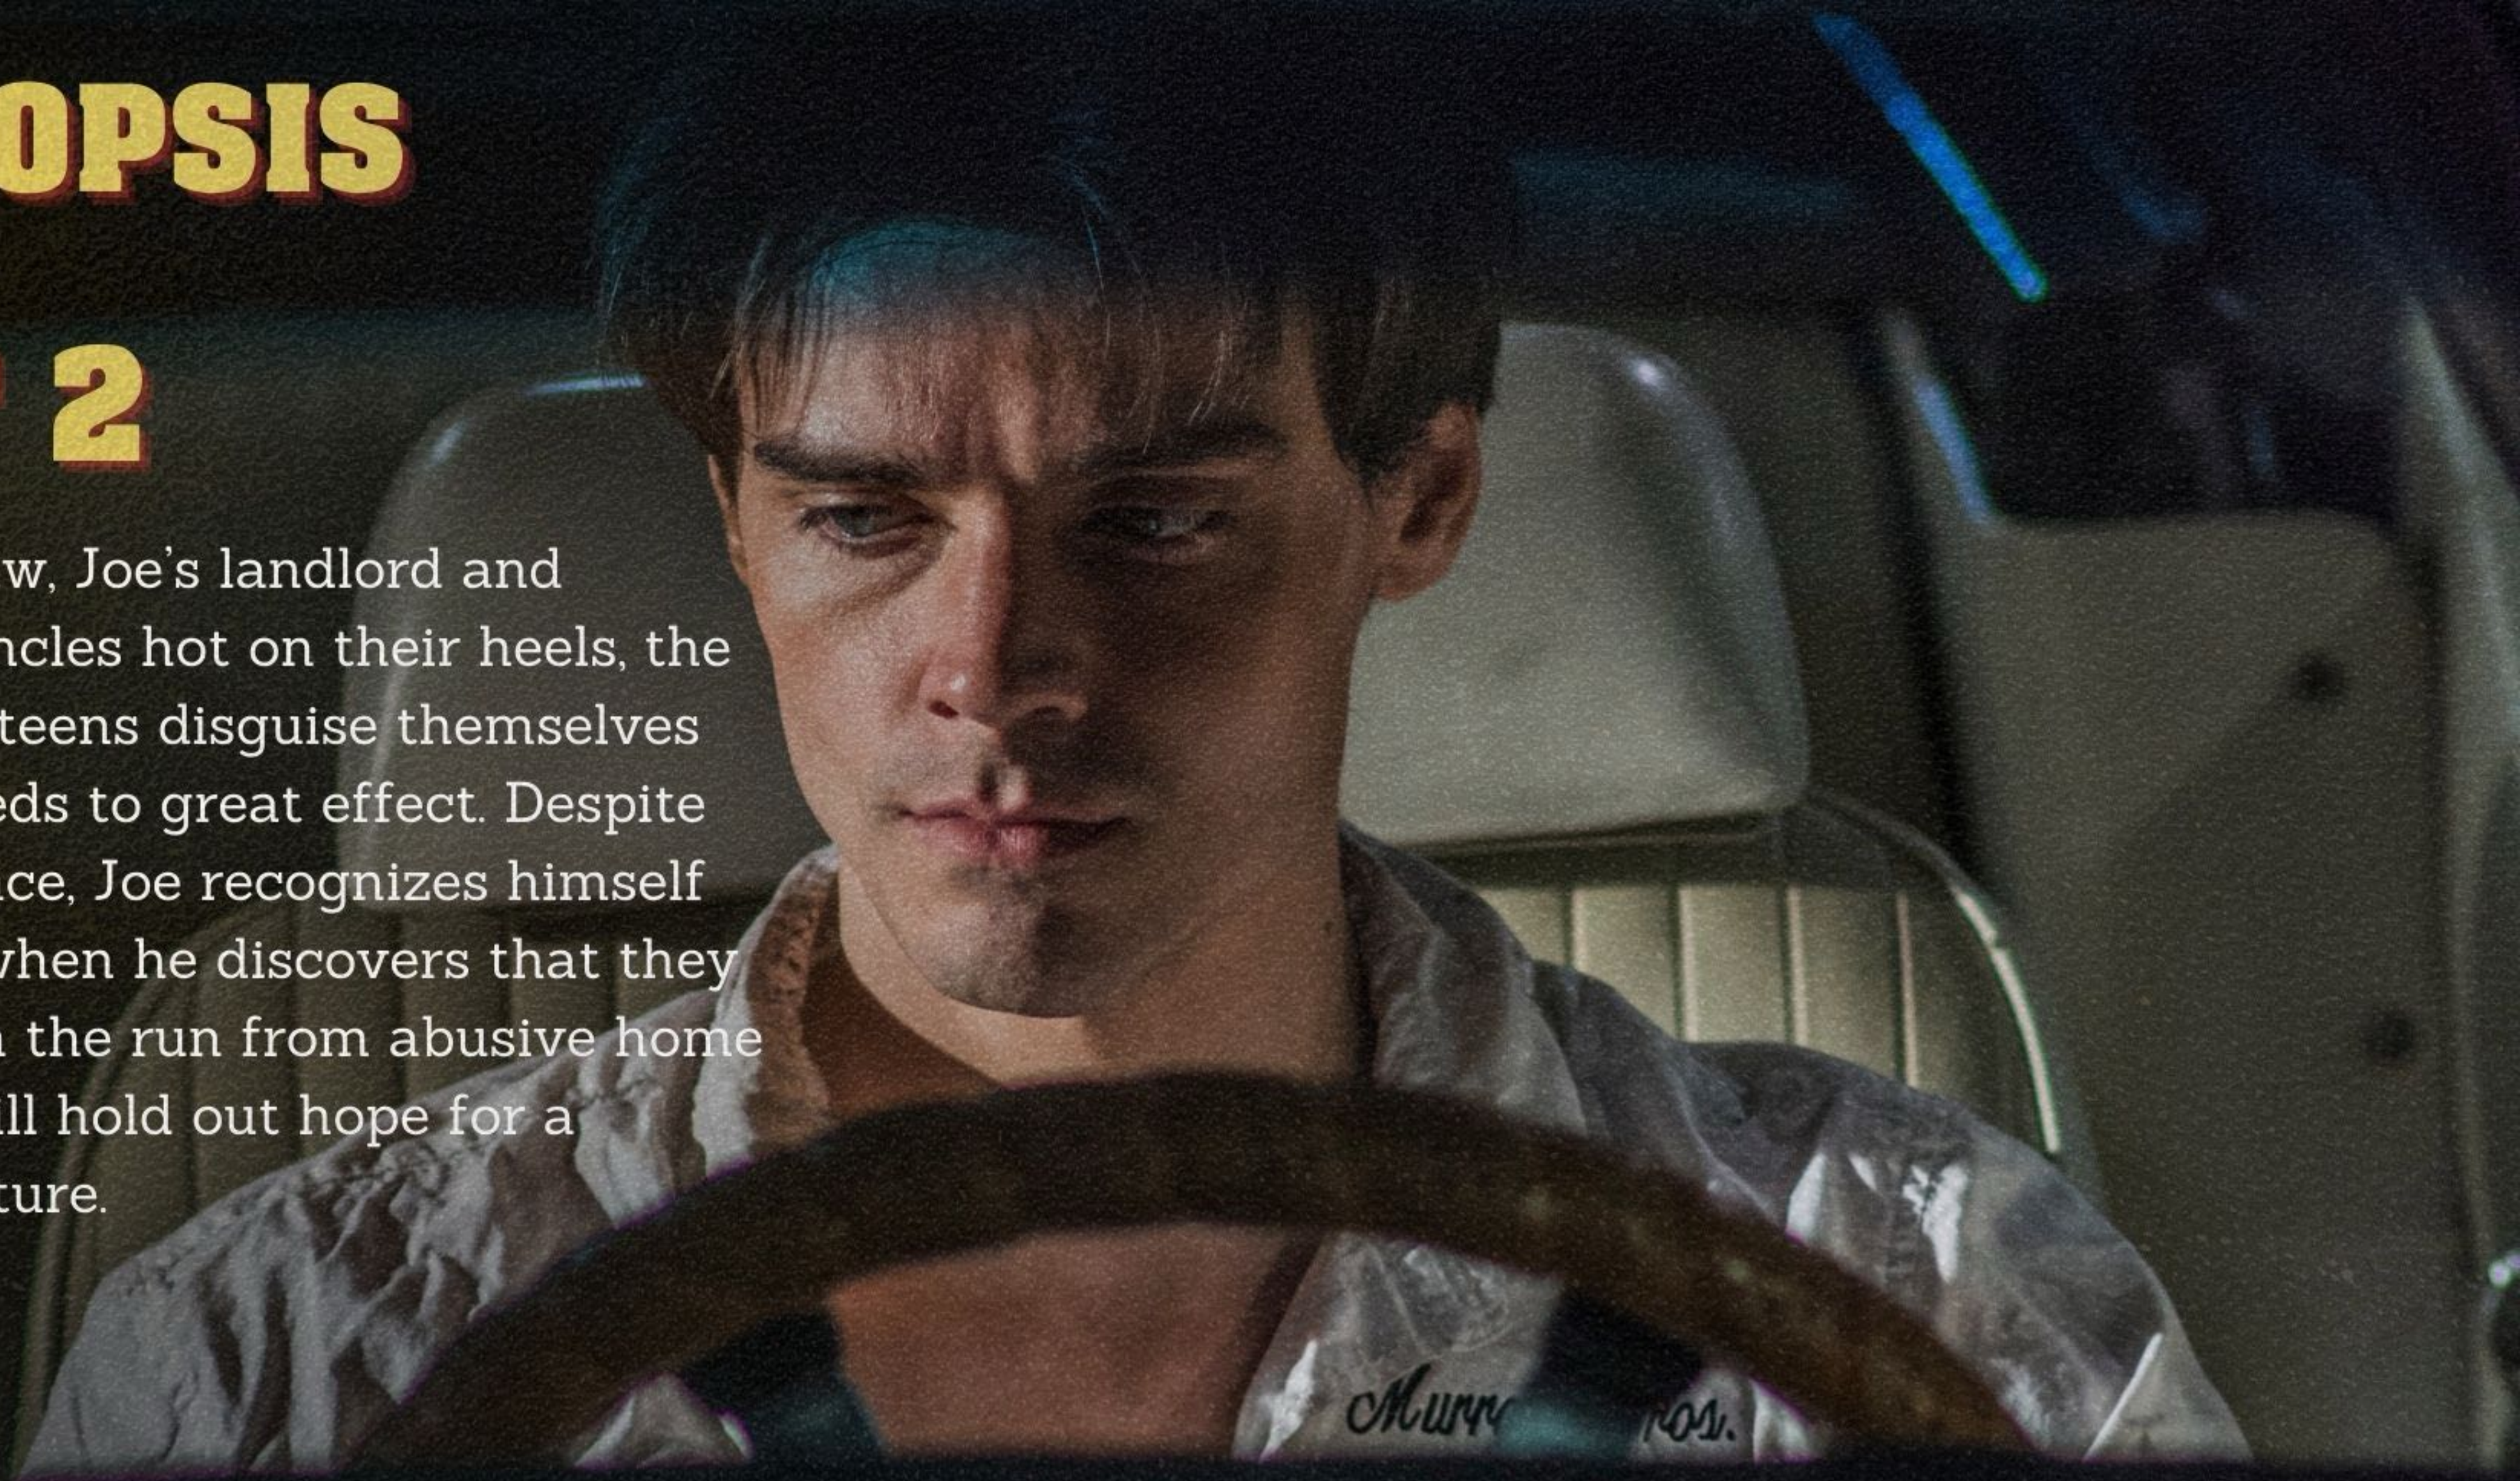

Meantime, 17 year old Joe has accidentally poisoned his obese mother and though he is flat broke, he's got a Mickey Mantle Baseball card worth millions. They chance upon each other at a gas station and together flee their horrendous pasts heading west.

ACT 2

With the law, Joe's landlord and Willow's Uncles hot on their heels, the distraught teens disguise themselves as newlyweds to great effect. Despite his resistance, Joe recognizes himself in Willow when he discovers that they are both on the run from abusive home lives yet still hold out hope for a brighter future.

ACT 3

Joe vows to buy themselves a home of their own with the money from the Mickey Mantle. But just yards away from the baseball card convention where they can cash in the Mickey, the law guns them down. Through their ordeal, the teens discover the inexplicable resilience of life and that there is truly no place like home.

DIRECTOR'S STATEMENT

No Place is a raw and edgy, fast-paced ride into eternity and back again. Set in a white trash world against the mystical ambience of the road. There is a spiritual undertone where no matter how bad it gets, there is always just a glimmer of light within the darkness.

No Place has the vibes of a 90s road picture nostalgic for the 50s. The film gives a visual wink to the cinematic genius of Quentin Tarantino, the breathtaking landscapes of Terence Malik and the dreamlike wonder found in The Wizard of Oz.

FUNDING GOAL

HYPOTHETICAL INVESTMENT RETURN

$500,000

Return On Investment:

First payout goes to investors until 120% of the investment is recouped. After 120% recoupment, the net profit is split 50/50 between the investors and the production company. The 50% production company split consists of percentages given to the director, producers, actors, actresses, writer, etc. On the investment side, your individual investment reflects the percentage of the film you own. There can be no further dilution of investor's percentage. Once your percentage is assigned, it cannot decrease.
