

Hannah Greenstein

Cellist | Music Educator

Contact

+353 87 192 1763

hmgreenstein@gmail.com

84 Prussia Street,
Stoneybatter, Dublin,
D07 XK49

Education

Master of Music
Performance 2025-2027
Royal Irish Academy of Music

Bachelor's of Music in Cello Performance 2020-2024
Jacobs School of Music at Indiana University

Languages

English Fluent/Native

Spanish B2

Summary

Hannah is a cellist and music educator dedicated to connecting people and places through music. She combines a strong classical foundation with a passion for teaching and community engagement. She is an experienced performer and passionate teacher with versatile experience in many different facets of music. She brings an international perspective, through her work in Spain, the U.S., and now Ireland, blending artistry, curiosity and creativity in every project.

Work Experience

North American Language & Culture Assistant Program (NALCAP) 2024-2025
Valencia, Spain
Taught English communication and cultural topics at IES Isabel de Villena, a secondary school in Valencia, Spain. Developed classroom activities to improve students' confidence and fluency in spoken English.

Substitute Cellist 2022-2024
Columbus, Indiana, USA
Regularly invited to perform as substitute cellist with the Columbus Indiana Philharmonic, a professional regional orchestra in Southern Indiana. Contributed to diverse symphonic programs and community outreach performances as needed for two years.

Substitute Cellist 2023-2024
Bloomington, Indiana, USA
Paid substitute ensemble position with the Indiana University Conductor's Orchestra, performing in graduate conducting recitals and orchestral projects as needed.

Social Media Intern Summer 2023
New York City, New York, USA & Remote
Collaborated with the artist management team at Primo Artists to create digital content promoting their artists. Contributed to growing audience engagement and refining the company's online presence.

Private Cello Teacher 2016-2017 & 2024- Present
St. Louis Park, Minnesota, USA & Remote
Established and managed a private cello studio offering personalised instruction. Teaching a diverse student base using a combination of Suzuki and traditional methods. Adapting to student needs by offering private, online lessons following the COVID-19 pandemic.