<sup>4</sup> For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, <sup>5</sup> so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another.<sup>1</sup> Romans 12:4-5 NRSV

SEPTEMBER 2025

ST. PAUL'S LUTHRAN CHURCH
HANOVER, PENNSYLVANIA 17331

Many of us are intrigued by the story of "Jesus and Zacchaeus" found in Luke 19:1-10. It is a wonderful story about Jesus entering the commerce city of Jericho, which was situated on an important commercial route and was a center of taxation. Zacchaeus was a rich person who made his wealth through the, in biblical days, despicable practice of collecting taxes. He, in essence, worked for the Romans and collected taxes for them from his fellow Jews, while extorting them (a practice allowed by the Romans) to make more money for himself. To say the least, he was not a popular man and was religiously and socially speaking, an outcast and traitor as he worked for the Romans against his own people.

However, that did not stop him from wanting to see Jesus as the latter was making his way through town. Nor did it stop Jesus from wanting to associate with this guy that most people treated with contempt. Being short, Zacchaeus climbed a tree to get a better view of Jesus and surely was shocked when our Lord (displaying prophetic power) called him by name and told him to come down and serve as his host for the day. Zacchaeus was only too happy to oblige and received Jesus into his home. Now the grumbling shifted to Jesus as the people complained that he was associating with a sinner. Zacchaeus was so moved by the Lord that he promised Jesus that he would give half of his possessions to the poor and give fourfold back to anyone he had defrauded. Jesus, touched by Zacchaeus's faithfulness, blessed him with a pronouncement of salvation.

What can we take from this story? Well, it shows the gracious, caring, and saving work of our Lord. Though despised by others, Jesus loved and cared so much for Zacchaeus that he invited himself into his home where a wonderful encounter was sure to take place. We note Jesus doing this type of outreach frequently in the gospels. People who are not good enough for their sinful peers are, somewhat ironically, good enough for their sinless Lord. As Jesus himself stated in the concluding verse of this text "the Son of Man came to seek out and save the lost."

He came to seek out and save Zacchaeus, you, and me. For you see, all people are welcome in our Lord's eyes. God's love for this man completely changed his life as he pledged to care for others and be fair to them. God's amazing love for us moves us to give thanks and praise to God in worship and to care for others. Stay onboard here as we continue to do these things as a congregation of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

SEPTEMBER SPECIAL DESIGNATED GIVING IS FOR LUTHERAN DISASTER RESPONSE

Flooding is one of the most common disasters in the United States. Across the country, the ELCA, through Lutheran Disaster Response, supports communities as they recover from devastating floodwaters.

Our response:

As ever and with your support, our church stands ready to walk with our neighbors around the country as floodwaters recede, cleanup begins and communities — like those in South Central Texas among others across the United States — rebuild after flooding events. May we be bearers of the hope found in Christ alone and help shoulder the burden for those who grieve.

Lutheran Disaster Response works with synods and partners to respond to urgent needs, give emotional and spiritual care, support long-term recovery (including disaster case management and meeting unmet needs) and provide educational training for synods and partners in affected regions.

HOMEBOUND VISITATION PROGRAM

- I know that in the past some of you served as visitors to St. Paul's homebound members. I believe that COVID took a toll on this program. I informed the Executive Committee last week that I would like to resurrect this fine program. We currently have about eighteen homebound members that I know would appreciate visits from their fellow disciples/members at St. Paul's. Whether you are one of the recent visitors or would like to take part in this visitation ministry, please express your interest to Pastor Dan and/or Carmen in the office. Participants will visit one to three homebound members monthly and distribute communion to them. This program does not replace my pastoral visits but does supplement them. There will be a training session for all who would like to serve as visitors.

ST. PAUL'S BOOK CLUB

St. Paul's Book Club will meet on Wednesday, September 24, 2025 at 12:45pm in the Conference Room on the second floor. We will be discussing The Frozen River by Ariel Lawhorn. This story takes place in Maine in 1789. Martha Ballard is a midwife and healer and is privy to much of what goes on behind closed doors in Hallowell, Maine. Martha is summoned to examine a body that has been taken from the frozen Kennebec River and to determine the cause of death. Thus begins the story of the mysterious death of this person. Hope to see you at the meeting to discuss this wonderful historical novel.

2025 CAMPERSHIPS

This year we sent six individual children, four of which were new to St. Paul's, to Camp Nawakwa. We also sent two families (total of seven individuals) to Family Camp at Camp Nawakwa.

We collected a total of $1405 in designated giving to support these camperships. The total cost was $6595, with the balance of $5190 paid via our generous Adventure in Ministries which is part of the St. Paul's Endowment Fund.

Some photos are included below and a few comments gathered included "the delicious food at camp, the beautifully chilly swimming pool, being in a magnificent natural setting, loved all the camp songs, the joy of bible study and allowing families to enjoy the experience together while creating family traditions".

Laura Silver – St. Paul's Camp Person

Below is a picture of the St. Paul's Family Camp group (plus Amy (Sowers) Mambu and Zoey)...sorry we didn't get to include Jenn (Dubs) Biddle).

As a long-time Nawakwa camper and volunteer, I ALWAYS appreciate spending a week at camp! This year was especially awesome as I got to fully attend with part of my family. I loved being able to share songs and camp fun with my granddaughter, Zoey. A new tradition is born! It was also joyous for me to experience camp with our daughter Amy as chaplain and Adult Bible Study leader. I learned that God is faithful through all the highs and lows of my life.

Thank you for this opportunity to grow as an individual and for us to experience this as a family.

Deb Sowers

Please fill out the following 2-page survey, tear it out of this booklet and return it to St. Paul's. ## Sisters in Faith

It's not too late to register for our fall retreat scheduled for Oct. 10 - 12 at Mar-Lu-Ridge. There are already 6 of us registered, but we have room for any more! We are hoping to have women of all ages join us for all or part of the weekend! Our weekend will be a time of fellowship, study, worship, and good fun! We will once again use a Bible Study from the Women of the ELCA Gathering magazine as a theme for our weekend. This year we'll explore Faithfulness: Faith Where You Are (Ruth and Naomi); Faith in the Depths (Psalm 22); Faith Adventures (Peter and Cornelius); and Faith Risks (Jarius and the Faithful Woman). So this year, who will win the Skip-Bo tournament, what places will we visit, what campfire stories will we tell? Come join us to find out!

The lodge has recently been remodeled for access for all abilities (elevator and better accessibility). There are still individual rooms (sleeping 1 or 2 people) each with a private bathroom. Best of all? Linens and all meals are PROVIDED! Cost is based on length of stay (one night = $130; two nights = $160... a slight increase from last year).

To register and for more information, contact Deb Sowers (debsowers@gmail.com). Remember that all are welcome whether or not a St. Paul's member!

Mark your calendars! We are looking for 20 volunteers to participate in the Hanover Against Hunger food packaging event on Nov. 1 (afternoon shift). There is a sign-up sheet on the board opposite the Pastor's Office. All ages are welcome! See Deb Sowers or contact the church office for more information.
