THE EVANGEL

APRIL 2021

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH
HANOVER, PENNSYLVANIA 17331

So, you think it's been a bad day?

The next time you're feeling down or useless, and maybe thinking you are too far gone to do any good as God's hands, feet, and voice in this world, try to remember ...

- Noah was a drunk,
- Abraham was too old,
- Isaac was a daydreamer,
- Jacob was a liar,
- Leah was ugly,
- Joseph was abused,
- Moses had a stuttering problem,
- Gideon was afraid,
- Sampson had long hair and was a womanizer,
- Rahab was a prostitute,
- Jeremiah and Timothy were too young,
- David had an affair and was a murderer,
- Elijah was suicidal,
- Isaiah preached naked,
- Jonah ran from God,
- Naomi was a widow,
- Job went bankrupt,
- John the Baptist ate bugs,
- Peter denied Christ,
- the disciples fell asleep while praying,
- Martha worried about everything,
- the Samaritan woman was divorced, more than once,
- Zaccheus was too small,
- Paul was too religious,
- Timothy had an ulcer ...
- AND Lazarus was dead!

No more excuses now. God can use you to your full potential regardless of the kind of day you are having. It's never about how you feel in the world, but how you are loved from Heaven above.

Peace be with you,

Pastor Burkhardt

FROM THE COUNCIL PRESIDENT

Greetings Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Easter is upon us yet again. This is the season that defines us as Christians. We believe Christ was raised from the dead to free us from sin and bring us to new life. We believe in a new life after death, but what exactly does it mean to have new life here and now? God gives us new life daily through Jesus so that we can love God and serve our neighbors.

You will begin to see and hear some new ideas at St. Paul's this Easter season that will help us live into that new life. Our Council has recently adopted a Purpose Statement that says, “We are called through Christ to praise God and love generously.” This Purpose Statement reminds us what it means to live as Christians every day. Our Council also approved a set of Guiding Principles which are meant to guide us as we set out to be the Church in action. The Guiding Principles state:

As instruments of God’s love, when you see us at our best you will see us:

- Generously stewarding God’s gifts of resources, time, and talents
- Serving as God’s hands & feet in ministries & missions of outreach to all
- Providing for the care of God’s people, both physically and spiritually
- Growing in Faith through worship, study, and discernment
- Praising God through music, word, and service
- Welcoming all people into fellowship with God

I ask that each of us prayerfully consider how we are called through Christ to praise God and love generously. Each of us has an important role to play in God’s mission. Consider how God is calling you to a new life of praise and service this Easter.

God bless,
Russ Kaltreider, Council President

EPHESIANS

William Barclay called Ephesians “The Queen of the Epistles.” It is a breathtaking treaty from Paul elaborating the reconciling work of God in Christ Jesus, i.e., making all human beings into one people as “the Body of Christ,” conquering the hostile cosmic powers of sin and death, the creation of a new humanity, and the creation of a new society founded and grounded in God. We approach the letter to the Ephesians “the greatest” and “most relevant of Paul’s works” properly with a sense of awe and wonder.

Most scholars agree that this letter was one of three letters (Colossians, Philemon, and Ephesians) written from his prison cell in Rome some thirty years after the crucifixion and resurrection of Christ. The letters all address disturbing heretical difficulties that have invaded and taken root in the newly formed Mediterranean Churches.

In Ephesians, Paul elaborates on two fundamental Christian themes. The first theme (chaps. 1-3) regards faithful doctrine regarding the new life and new society in Christ which God has brought into being by the death and resurrection of His Son. The second theme (chaps. 4-6) teaches the new standards for life and relationships expected of Christian believers. This second theme takes us from theory to practice; from “This is the way things are now,” to “therefore, we are to honor God by living like this.”

Because Christ on the cross has overcome the demonic powers that have separated us in the world from the love of God and one another, our efforts toward loving unity in relationships with God and our neighbors has become central to the God fearing and faithful life.

April Study:

Open Up: What is the “best medicine” for you when you find yourself “down in the dumps?”

Read Chapter 1, verses 1-15

Dig In: 1. Having read this passage, how would you describe Paul’s tone?

2. What are the “blessings in Christ” found in verses 3-9, and in what ways do they relate to your praising and honoring God?

3. What activities are described as the work of the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit, and what do they tell us about God?

4. How does God’s choosing us (v.4) relate to our believing in Him (v.13?) How do you know if you are chosen, adopted, or predestined, and what is it you are “chosen” to do?

Reflection: 1. What from this passage motivates you to give thanks and praise to God the most?

2. What are the benefits of God’s grace in your life and how does the reality of that grace make a difference?

3. What of your present lifestyle might you want to change to better live in praise of His glory this week?

APRIL'S DESIGNATED GIVING
St. Paul's Family Crisis Fund.

Many times in our life together we find that families within our congregation face monumental struggles. Families or individuals may have financial needs arise from medical emergencies, fires, long-term disabilities, or unemployment. They come seeking assistance from the church and many times they need more help than is readily available in the Discretionary Fund. Several years ago, our Congregation Council established the Family Crisis Fund and criteria for disbursement of funds to the families of our congregation. Building a fund such as the Family Crisis Fund enables us to help our families meet their needs and to hopefully get through the crisis. Please give generously to our Family Crisis Fund this month, so we can help those in need.

Our brother in Christ, David Shue, claimed the promise of his baptism on February 28, 2021.

St. Paul's Book Club will be meeting on Wednesday, April 21, 2021 at 7:00 pm in the Fellowship Hall. We will be discussing the book The Moment Keeper by Buffy Andrews. Buffy is a York resident and spoke at one of our meeting last year. We so liked her work that we decided to read another of her books. Join us for the discussion on this book.

Our May meeting will be on Wednesday, May 26, 2021 to discuss the book The Women Who Smashed Codes by Jason Fagone. Read the book and join us for a good discussion and good fellowship.

All are welcomed to join the group discussion. Hope to see you there.

SPRING – A TIME TO LOVE GENEROUSLY

As this article is being written, the calendar says Spring has begun!

After a terrible COVID year, all of us are anxious to begin planning for a near-normal Spring and Summer. Here at St. Paul’s we are making summer plans to celebrate our Christian faith and brotherhood. Those plans include: Worship Services on the Lawn, Family Fest for youngsters and families, Lutheran Summer Camp, a continuation of our Grocery Ministry, the ongoing use of our building by our Scouting programs, participation in the Hanover Snacktown event (formerly Dutch Days), a Disaster Rebuild trip to North Carolina, Vacation Bible School; plus additional projects are being discussed. St. Paul’s has remained an active Christian community during this past year and we will continue to do so, in spite of COVID.

However, limited worship opportunities because of COVID have resulted in a decrease in giving during the first quarter of 2021. This is understandable, if we are not attending worship we often forget our financial commitment to support God’s work here at St. Paul’s. You probably intend to catch up during the year; however, as summer approaches financial giving historically drops. Reduced giving because of a COVID winter, and a busy summer, could result in a financial short-fall for St. Paul’s. Please don’t let that happen. Going into the last quarter of 2021 with a financial deficit would create a challenge and a worry for everyone.

Therefore, during these weeks of Easter celebration, can you make a renewed financial commitment? If you have fallen behind in your giving, can you catch up?

Let’s head into the summer financially sound. COVID has been tough on all of us, but St. Paul’s has remained active and alive. Let’s continue defying the odds and prove that St. Paul’s is strong in both praising God and loving generously.

All future prayer requests should come through the church office. Prior to last year all prayer concerns came through the office and a list was prepared by Sue Wineholt for distribution.

Last year, during Lent, a prayer group was formed and, when COVID happened, the group was unable to meet in-person so Janet Haack graciously continued to compile a weekly prayer list because the building and office was closed.

Now that the office is open again there seems to be some confusion as to where people should report their prayer concerns. To simplify things we are asking you to call or email the church directly. Sue will, once again, prepare the prayer list for distribution and she will continue to distribute it to the same people that Janet sent it to. Our main concern is that no one that needs prayers is missed.

Special thanks to Janet who so faithfully stepped in.

Thank you so much for the valentines, anniversary and all the other cards that we have received from our St. Paul's family!

Phyllis and Bill Mosebrook

Thank you "to everyone" who wished me a Happy 80th birthday. What a nice surprise to find birthday wishes to me, for several days, in our mailbox. It was so much fun to read all of the birthday wishes and the notes written inside. Always grateful to my church family for making my 80th birthday a very memorable one.

Warmest thanks,
Gary Smith

To my church family:

Thank you for flowers, cards, letters and especially prayers. Also, Pastor Bob, your phone calls and prayers were appreciated. It was a difficult time for our family but we are stronger and marching on with the grace of God with us.

In His love,
Betty Markle

Thank you to everyone who sent me cards for my birthday. It's so nice to be remembered by my St. Paul's family.

STRENGTHENING THE CHURCH, ONE CAMPER AT A TIME

Recent studies have shown that individuals who experience church camping as children and youth are more likely to stay involved in faith communities as adults.

WHY?

- Church camp experience offers opportunities to live a faithful life in a non-threatening environment.
- Campers practice living as Jesus intends us to live in a community of people striving to do the same.
- Campers have opportunities to practice times of quiet, individual devotion, as well as active, participatory worship.
- Campers are given a safe space to discuss faith topics with peers and mentors.
- Campers are given opportunities for worship leadership and participation.
- Campers learn how to be faithful Christian disciples, eager to proclaim the Gospel and serve others.

All of this faith formation takes place within the setting of an outdoor community that seeks to build character, foster independence, encourage good relationships, and teach life skills...benefits that campers will carry for the rest of their lives. Congregations, in turn, will grow and flourish with members who are eager to lead and serve.

Since 1929, the Lutheran Camping Corporation has provided a Christ-centered ministry for people in all stages of life. LCC is in partnership and cooperation with congregations of the Lower Susquehanna Synod for the proclamation of the Gospel.

The camps of LCC provide unique and effective settings and experiences where the Gospel is shared, and faith is nurtured in the lives of children, adults and families. LCC's programs serve as an extension of congregational ministry, and participants of all ages return to their homes and families renewed and strengthened for Christian living.

Matthew 25:40

Stewards of our natural world

“God saw everything that God had made, and indeed, it was very good.” –
Genesis 1:31

Type “glacier loss” into an internet search engine, examine photos of ice sheets today versus just a few decades ago, and you will draw the same conclusion as the world’s best scientists: We are losing ice, and fast.

But melting glaciers is just one of the many crises facing our natural world. Stressed by warming temperatures, rising sea levels, shifting weather patterns, acidifying ocean waters, and pollution of land, air and water, nature itself is under grave threat. Thousands of species of insects, plants and animals are going extinct as habitat, from coral reefs to rainforests to estuaries, is destroyed.

“Our planet is in crisis,” says campaignfornature.org. “The natural world is disappearing at an unprecedented rate.”

For God’s people, appointed as caretakers of God’s creation, this is not just troubling news but also a call to action.

This April 22, the 51st Earth Day, let’s dedicate ourselves to learning about and fighting for God’s creation. Here are some ideas:

- Learn about the growing crises and how they threaten our lives. Teach others.
- Pick one problem and make it a focus for education, awareness, and action in your family or congregation.
- Connect with nature by visiting a park or wild place near you.
- Pick up litter and trash from the street or public land.
- Learn about the plants and animals that live in your area.
- Plant flowers, herbs, vegetables, or trees.
- Advocate for public policies that will promote conservation.
- Find a special way to observe Earth Day in your family, congregation, or community.

Our natural world is under threat, but God’s people can make a difference by caring and getting busy.
