RENOVATION UPDATE: Final painting in the Sanctuary and Stairwell will be finished this week. We will then schedule the return of the Hand Bells to the balcony, return AV equipment, return of hymnals, etc. to the pews, and set up the altar area. After all of those tasks are accomplished, we will return worship services to our beautifully renovated Sanctuary. Plans for the Sunday we resume worship in the Sanctuary will include a Dedication Service and a Reception. Stay Tuned for specific dates. After we move worship out of Fellowship Hall, Ausherman will schedule dates to paint the Hall.

In regards to repair of the front steps, it has been complicated to determine what products to use and to locate a mason to tackle the job. We are currently awaiting a proposal and will keep you posted.

The Property Committee is researching options for replacing the rubber roof that covers the administration section of the building. Deterioration has been significant and, consequently, we keep experiencing leaks into various sections of the building.
