Present an Educational Outreach Workshop:

Exploring Watercolor with Pamela Price

Saturday, October 19, 2019, 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. at the Monroeville Public Library

Adult Watercolor Class (age 18 and older)

Inspired by Van Gogh's Sunflowers, the participants will create a watercolor painting from a still life set up in the room. The magic of still life is "a new way of looking at ordinary objects." The class will first prepare a small pencil sketch focusing on shapes and values. Then they will transfer the drawing to watercolor paper. The instructor will demonstrate each step of the process. The goal is to complete a painting reflecting the student's own interpretation of the still life.

Pamela Price is a Pittsburgh Watercolorist who has received numerous awards in local and national shows. She is a juried member of the Pittsburgh Watercolor Society. Her paintings have been accepted into the Aqueous Open International for the last 5 years. She is also a member of the Pennsylvania Watercolor Society, the West Virginia Watercolor Society, and the East Suburban Artists League. Pam shares her joy and enthusiasm for watercolors through teaching classes and workshops.

There is NO charge for instruction! All materials will be provided. **
(Students may bring any watercolor supplies that they may have.)

*There is a $10 fee for materials; fee waived for MAC members.
