

Name _____

Date _____

Module 1: Responsibilities, Psychology, Clothing & Equipment

Down

1. Some drivers or pedestrians will ask _____ if given the chance.
2. On clothing worn when conducting traffic control, beer, company or sport team logos, slogans, political or religious identification, jokes, and names of other departments or agencies may be considered
4. When choosing footwear for traffic control, the primary concern is _____ and comfort, and not fashion.
6. Drivers and pedestrians may be _____ by the gestures or signals of a traffic control officer.
8. A _____ Class III safety vest or jacket is to be worn by all PEMA volunteers conducting traffic control.
9. Occasionally drivers and pedestrians won't want to go the _____ you need to send them.
11. Something to remember is that you are _____ the municipality or agency you are supporting when you are conducting traffic control.
12. Headgear worn when conducting traffic control include Palatine Emergency Management Agency (PEMA) or _____ ball caps, knit or wool caps, and winter storm hats.

Across

3. The collection of people coming and going in a particular place during a specified period of time is known as _____ traffic.
5. The collection of vehicles coming and going in a particular place during a specified period of time is known as vehicular _____.
7. Only _____ traffic wands or cones are used by PEMA volunteers conducting traffic control.
10. Traffic _____ are aids to use when directing traffic in addition to arm and hand gestures.
13. Drivers may be _____ by the passengers or children in their car.
14. Some drivers or pedestrians will try and go _____ you even if you have the road blocked.

Answer Key

[illegible]