

KEM Strategy

KEM is an Innovation Enabler

We strengthen our clients' corporate innovation.

We recognize the need for agile, rapid responses due to future wars being waged not just in the air, on the land, and at the sea, but also in space and cyber.

KEM Supports End-to-End Strategic Development Lifecycle:

INNOVATE. OPTIMIZE. OUTPERFORM.

Trusted advisors to Aerospace and Defense leadership on the Department of Defense Acquisition Process.

Our team drives performance excellence and superior defense management. We work to support the warfighter and help our clients sharpen their focus on this mission.

STRATEGIC PARTNERS

KEM works with a strong, trusted, global network. Together we create innovative solutions and relationships meeting our customers' readiness, security and affordability needs.
