

GILEAD INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE

Social Science Division

Diploma in Psychology & Counseling (Required Courses)

Course Name	Course Description	Credits
BIBLICAL STUDIES
Introduction to the Old Testament (BIB 101)	In this class the student receives an overview of the Old Testament. The student will learn about the Authorship, historical background, Social significance and main events of each book.	3
Introduction to the New Testament (BIB 102)	In this class the student will receive an overview of the Books of the New Testament. Examination will be given to the authorship, themes, Events and doctrine of each book.	3
Basic Theology (THE 200)	A foundational study of the basic doctrines of the Bible	3
The Life of Christ (BIB 120)	This course involves a study of the Gospels as they relate to the life and Ministry of Jesus Christ.	3
GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS
College English 1 (ENG 102)	This course teaches grammar, mechanics, paragraph development and Essay writing techniques for effective writing at college level.	3
College Math (MAT 101)	This introductory course covers a variety of topics including calculations, The metric system, geometry and statistics.	3
Introduction to Computers (CSC 100)	An introduction to the use of the computer and various software Applications.	3

Public Speaking (SPC 100)	An introduction to basic public speaking. It focuses on the selection And organization of materials, the factors of attention, types of speeches And style of delivery.	3
English Literature (LIT 202)	A survey of English literature from its beginnings through the Renaissance Period.	3
Biological Science (SCI 102)	A course eying basic concepts of biology, including: metabolism, Ecosystems, reproductions, etc.	3
PROFESSIONAL STUDIES
Biblical Foundations to Counseling (CHC 302)	A foundational course that introduce basic concepts of counseling Emphasizing the use of the scriptures.	3
General Psychology (PSY 200)	A foundational study of human behavior from a biblical & Scientific perspective.	3
Marriage & Family Counseling (CHC 400)	A review and examination of the causes and effects of marital and Familial conflict and counseling methods.	3
Social Psychology (PSY 312)	A study of the social basis of human behavior, interpersonal response Social status, social roles.	3
Human Growth & Development (CHC 301)	A course in life span psychology, including aspects from conception To death.	3
Introduction to Philosophy (PHI 301)	A survey and critical analysis of the various systems of philosophy and Philosophical ideas.	3
Statistics in Psychology (PSY 305)	Introduction to statistical methodology in the social sciences.	3
TOTAL CREDITS		51

“Enhancing Vision through Information and Impartation”