

2021 Poetry Scavenger Hunt

Elkins-Randolph County Public Library

KIDS EDITION

It looks like you've decided to celebrate National Poetry Month by participating in a poetry scavenger hunt. What fun awaits!

To begin, look for posters in downtown Elkins with the "Kids Edition Poetry Scavenger Hunt" logo as seen above. There will be a poem with picture clues. Write down the location (the name of the business you found the poster at) and who you think wrote that poem.

When is the scavenger hunt?

The scavenger hunt lasts from Apr. 1-30. All submissions must be in by 5pm, Apr. 30.

Where is the scavenger hunt?

Scavenger hunt clues are contained in the area between Randolph Ave, Martin St, and 1st St in downtown Elkins, WV. All clues are within walking distance of one another.

How does my team make a submission?

Participants can submit their findings at the ERCPL to win a prize. Email your list to intheknow@elkinslibrary.com or drop it off at the library Mon-Fri, 9am-6pm.

...And what about prizes?

Prizes and prize winners will be announced in May! Make sure you include contact information for all team members, so the library can reach you about prizes.
