

2021 Poetry Scavenger Hunt

Elkins-Randolph County Public Library

It looks like you've decided to celebrate National Poetry Month by participating in a poetry scavenger hunt! What fun! To start, look for posters in downtown Elkins with the "Adult Challenge Poetry Scavenger Hunt" logo as seen above. There will be a poem or excerpt and picture clues. Write down the location and the name of the poet you think wrote that poem.

When/Where is the scavenger hunt?

The scavenger hunt lasts from Apr. 1-30. All submissions must be in by 5pm, Apr. 30. Scavenger hunt clues are contained in the area between Randolph Ave, Martin St, and 1st St in downtown Elkins, WV. All clues are within walking distance of one another.

How does my team make a submission?

Participants can submit their findings at the ERCPL to win a prize. Email your list to intheknow@elkinslibrary.com or drop it off at the library Mon-Fri, 9am-6pm.

...And what about prizes?

Prizes and prize winners will be announced in May! Make sure you include contact information for all team members, so the library can reach you about prizes.
