

Join a Organization

It is important to know that an Individual cannot achieve true justice without collaborating with a collective of other individuals who have similar passions and beliefs which is called an organization. Protests, student sit-ins, boycotts, petitions etc. are all led by organizations.

Here are some current organizations who may be fighting for your beliefs and passions:

