James P. Cameron Write-In Candidate for Lieutenant Governor Demands Both Candidates Gloria Romero and Fiona Ma Drop Out of Lieutenant Governor Race Immediately.

Cameron's campaign slogan — 'Conserve California' is a mission to course-correct California's calamity.

SACRAMENTO, Calif. — June 3, 2026 — James P. Cameron (J.P.C.), was sworn to oath as his write-in candidacy was approved by the Orange County Registrar of Voters office based in Santa Ana, Calif.

California's election for Lieutenant Governor mirrors A pirate ship looting by two wenches named Miss. Gloria Romero and Miss. Fiona Ma; both political animals on opposite sides of the plank will need to jump off before their vessel sinks akin to the Titanic, or else they will bring California down with the ship.

Ahoy mate, come aboard and set sail was the calling joker card from Republican in name only Miss. Romero and Democrat by design Miss. Ma's campaign, both flawed to truly lead after blatant disregard for the process and the people. Now, as A result, we have mutiny by Gloria Romero and A lost treasure by Fiona Ma. We have passed the point of sanity and now cruise to unthinkable low depths of no return.

Election oversight officials have ignored for six months blatant abuses of standards and rules. California is A foul spoiled fish out of water stinking for allowing false statements; candidate Gloria Romero, calling herself "running mate" of front runner Steve Hilton when each candidate is by the rules "separate" for voter discernment. "Write-In" candidate James P. Cameron J.P.C. points out Gloria Romero has blurred the line of illusion. A form of collusion, disingenuous and/or gerrymandering and perhaps undue influence; optic's matter as voters believe in A mirage collective team which is inauthentic and can be viewed as unscrupulous or purposely deceitful.

Electoral rules enforce corruption. Campaign finance and coordination: The Fair Political Practices Commission (FPPC) under the Political Reform Act heavily regulates coordination- especially with outside groups (independent expenditure committees or "superPACs"). Strict presumptions of coordination exist if there's shared strategy whereby it might risk reducing competition, concentrating influence, or creating de facto.

A combo meal, unified executive ticket does not exist nor should "A Golden Ticket." J.P.C. asserts that A strong Lieutenant Governor needs to stand independently capable on their own merit. California does not need another ceremonial Lt. Governor. "California needs A let's set the bar higher and do more good Lieutenant."

Don't worry be happy, pretend you're watching A Seinfeld episode with Gloria Romero as rules don't apply for career political flip-flopping. Just put your kaleidoscope glasses on and blur your sense of reality. Gloria Romero, A Republican candidate, told CalMatters "I called the lieutenant governor sort of the Seinfeld of state government, because nobody knows who it is, and then they think it's A job about nothing,"

Furthermore, and perhaps more egregiously and concerning Democrat voters with A high % of Woman within have ignored common sense killing the "Pound Me Too" movement officially, destroyed by its poster child Fiona Ma. Not by A sexually aggressive man but by A plausible lesbian's questionable actions have led to A civil settlement of $350,000 by tax-funded State of California. All this while she was Treasurer of State of California! Alleged "unwanted sexual advances during work-related travel where they shared accommodations." Specific claims included "repeated exposure of Ma's bare rear end and one instance of Ma climbing into accusers' bed."

In August 2024, the proposed victim and former employee Judith Blackwell's attorneys filed to dismiss the remaining sexual harassment claims against Ma personally just before the September trial. Hence, after $350,000 check was written to the victim, the State Treasurer's office is off the hook now for any wrong doing. Shocking times are here in the state of fruits and nuts for sure. A lack of basic character seems to be the commonality of both Romero and Ma whom have for now won A jungle primary. Strict rules of protocol election processes nor human decency apply anymore as standards have regressed to below sea level.

In conclusion, both these women portray the old dirty politician persona of scheming.

Sincerely,

Top Contender for Lieutenant Governor: "Write My Name In" November 3, 2026

P.S. The Orange County Register writer Rafael Perez published "Gloria Romero is unfit for even the minimal responsibilities of lieutenant governor" on March 16, 2026 ending the hit piece with "What we can conclude from my interview with Romero is that Hilton's choice of running mate reflects dreadfully on him and seriously calls his judgment and intentions into question."

P.S. Politico, SF Chronicle, Sac Bee, and Associated Press all seem to strangely gloss over the fact that A State Treasurer's foremost job which Fiona Ma failed at (is to not cost additional financial pain onto its constituents' tax-payers!) End of fucking story, protect the institutionalized politician.

J.P.C. brings a unique perspective to understanding differing voter sentiments among his core audience, including baby boomers, Gen Xers, millennials, and GenZers.

Woman are expected to be the strongest turnout for James P. Cameron the eligible bachelor as he was surveyed by League of Woman's Voters CA Educational Fund. Likewise, J.P.C. has been surveyed by Ballotpedia regarding his future direction for California's 4 foremost needs.

At a critical juncture for the Golden State, J.P.C. is a strong proponent of aligning republicans, libertarians, independents, and democrats. With a quad-partisan statewide vision, J.P.C. aims to empower the electorate through unity, accountability and expanded participation.

"This is a crucial time for sound leadership and raising the bar — across the four primary responsibilities of the California Lieutenant Governor."

1. Strict Senate Oversight
2. Business Development and Commerce
3. State Parks and Water
4. Higher Education

Holding his California insurance license, Mr. Cameron was recruited and trained by American Express Financial Advisors, while also earning his Series 7 license. J.P.C. later joined Newport Beach based PaineWebber / UBS Wealth Management. His core clientele were Broadcom executives and engineers. At his peak, J.P.C. one on one presented a novel proactive solution to the CEO of the largest market cap company on earth based in San Francisco. Big game James' aim was deemed "too aggressive from a tax & accounting standpoint."

He later co-captained an innovative start-up in 2009 serving all of California. YourCarOurDriver.com, where he serves as SVP of business development. The firm's primary investor acquired The Private Chauffeur, a strategic expansion plan via franchising opportunities.

Previously, J.P.C. served as an executive for Ethika, Inc., a Southern California-based lifestyle apparel company and music recording studio, where he supported the firm’s CEO and marketing initiatives for more than five years. Furthermore, James P. Cameron launched iCAMJAM MUSIC independent publishing #3ALBUMS: iCamJam.com “Twist Of Fate, Memoir,” JamzTown.com “Underground Sound,” TwistOfLove.com “ROCKUMENTRY” – via global digital distributor Virgin Music Group.
