

The DOD45 Show – Podcast One-Pager

---

Show Overview:

The DOD45 Show is a highly visual, surrealist podcast where artist Tai Taeoalii draws absurd and metaphorically rich artwork in real-time while interviewing underground legends, musicians, cultural disruptors, and visual artists. Imagine if a late-night talk show collided with an art jam session — funny, thoughtful, off-the-rails, and visually immersive.

About the Host:

Tai Taeoalii is a U.S.-born Samoan/Dutch artist, filmmaker, and podcaster with a two-decade-long career in underground art and film. He's sold thousands of original works nationwide, curated gallery shows, and built a cult following through his podcast and artwork as ArtByTai. He currently runs Ol' Blue Gallery in Hannibal, MO.

Notable Guests:

- Mr. Dibbs (Atmosphere, 1200 Hobos)
- Sage Francis (Strange Famous Records)
- Codefendants (Ceschi, Sam King, Fat Mike)
- Slug (Atmosphere)
- Doseone (Themselves, Subtle, Anticon)
- Marley B, 18andCounting, Kay the Aquanaut, and more.

Audience & Reach:

- 10k+ YouTube subscribers
- Thousands of audio listeners across Spotify and other podcast platforms
- Loyal collector and fanbase built through national art festivals and Ol' Blue Gallery
- Social media following across @artbytai and @dod45show continues to grow organically

What Makes It Unique:

- Full video podcast experience with live drawing
- Guests range from hip-hop legends to visual artists and cultural icons
- Absurd hypotheticals, deep-cut questions, and fully original artwork created during interviews
- Engaging real-time creative process that blends visual art, storytelling, and conversation
