Red, White & Blue Firecracker Cocktail

Here is a fun cocktail to enjoy the 4th with, compliments of Svedka Vodka. Don't feel obligated to just serve on the 4th, how about any day that ends with a Y?

1 1/2 parts Svedka Vodka
1 part watermelon schnapps
1/2 part cranberry juice
1/2 part lemon juice
1/2 part simple syrup (see recipe below)
1/4 blue curacao
Soda Water

Build in the glass. Add watermelon schnapps and cranberry juice over ice, then carefully add lemon juice, simple syrup and Svedka to layer the white layer, then VERY carefully layer the blue curacao to create the color separation and gently top with soda water. Garnish with fresh watermelon or raspberries.

Simple Syrup

1 cup water
1 cup white sugar
Combine water & sugar in a medium saucepan. Bring to a boil, stirring until sugar has dissolved. Allow to cool

Answers on bottom of back page

I reached out to another long time member this month to try and bring back some memories from past events over the years. My resource this time was Jeff Granberg. He has spent many, many hours going through photos and scanning them into a digital format. I was lucky enough to get some of those pictures that I can now share with you. Thank you Jeff!
