We don't know if San Diego has recovered yet, but we do know that the city wasn't ready for what was coming! The bus left town in the morning & that's when the fun began. Phoenicians were on the move & headed for the coast. The Lafayette Hotel served as their home base, but they were all over town during the course of the weekend. A bay cruise, San Diego Zoo and multiple stops at the local watering holes (of course) were just a few of the excursions. Here are a few of the pictures for those of you who weren't lucky enough to join the fun.

San Diego 2016

Pesto (Gilroy Garlic Festival)

Basil is in peak season, so let's take full advantage of that & make a delicious Pesto.

- 4 c Fresh Basil
- 1 c Butter, melted
- 3/4 c Parmesan Cheese, grated
- 3/4 c Romano Cheese, grated
- 2 cloves fresh garlic (locals will double or triple this amount)
- 2 T Pine Nuts (optional)
- 1 1/2 c Extra Virgin Olive Oil

Add basil, butter, cheeses & pine nuts to food processor; pulse a few times to mix. Slowly add olive oil while blending until it becomes a smooth mixture. Serve over angel hair pasta or linguine. Sprinkle with additional parmesan cheese and garnish with fresh basil leaves and/or whole pine nuts.

Another campout rally to put in the books. There were lots of new faces, and many that we had seen before, but what a yearbook picture it would have made! The drag show was great, the food was wonderful and we raised more than we could have expected. A few “shout outs” are in order:

Gina: Entertainment Coordinator
 Myron: Raffle Ticket Salesman Extraordinaire
 Brian A: A+ Grill Master
 Jeff & Jim: 50/50 Raffle Insanity
 Oz Bar: Kevin, Mike & Eric You're The Best!
 Here is a projection: Based upon the great time everyone had at the rally, campout this year should be amazing!

ATTENTION ALL WANNABE ENTERTAINERS!

Campout, just like Fiddler on the Roof, has Tradition! On Saturday night, we put on the best darn show in the entire Prescott National Forest! (Pay no attention that it is the only show, details like that just get in the way.) This year will be no different, it's show time @ at the Upper Wolf Creek Stage & you could be the act that brings the house down. Don't be shy...let's see just how entertaining you can be. Song & Dance, comedy, drag, play your (fill in the blank), juggle....whatever! We are looking for acts and need your participation.

Contact Carl Perkins @ carl.lads@outlook.com or ladphxaz@gmail.com
 Don't hold back, you could be asked to be a headline, returning act for next year.!
