2019: A Year in Review!

2019 was a year for the books, here's what Resolveera accomplished this past year

June 2019

Resolveera attended the National Association of Social Workers, Empower Up: Social Workers as the Vanguard of Change, 2019 NASW-NYS Statewide Conference from June 5-7. There, Resolveera gave a presentation entitled, "Young Adults with Autism: A challenges for Aging South Asian Parents".

On June 14th, 2019, Resolveera gave another presentation at the Annual Conference: Equity from the Start; Promoting Social Justice in Early Childhood Programs. The presentation given was titled, “Facing Unique Challenges of Diversity: Planning “person-in-environment” Approaches,”

July 2019

In July Resolveera’s website underwent a major transformation. In order to become more informational and user-friendly, Resolveera’s website was changed. To check it out head to: www.resolveera.org

August 2019

Resolveera created our Youtube channel. There, we post informational and education videos as well as updates on Resolveera’s current activities. Check it out: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCtMnYlzL7z9-zkvaEoKh0yQ>

October-November 2019

For a two-month period, Resolveera hosted three presentations at the Child Center of New York.

On October 4th, 2019, Resolveera presentation titled, “Parents’/Caregivers’ Perspectives To Child Diagnosis & Approaches To Play Therapy”.

On October 14th, 2019, Resolveera proceeded to host another workshop titled, “Understanding Early Signs of Developmental Disabilities: Hitting/Missing Milestones”.

Lastly, on November 11th, 2019, Resolveera’s most recent workshop titled, “Developing Social Capital: An Investment for Better Decision Making” was hosted.

At each workshop, different ideas and activities were done. For more information, check out Resolveera’s Youtube Channel, which has videos on each workshop, and how it went.

2019 has been a great year for Resolveera! Here’s to more joyous occasions in 2020!
