

If you have never accepted Jesus and His Finished work for your life and in your heart, or if you've been away from Him and want to come back, you can do that right here, right now.

If you're ready, just say this prayer with an open heart...

*Lord God Almighty, here I am. I need You. I am so lost without You. I believe in Your Son, Jesus Christ. I believe He came as a human, died on that Cross, gave His Body and Blood to save, heal, and deliver me. And I believe You raised Him from the dead three days later. I choose Jesus to be my Savior, Lord, and my Healer. I choose You to be my God and my Father, and I ask You to fill me with Your Holy Spirit right now. Teach and Guide me all the days of my life. Keep me close to You just as You promised, and bless me forever.
In Jesus' name I pray, amen.*
