Part II Organizational Structure

5. Have you adopted bylaws? If "Yes," attach a current copy showing date of adoption. If "No," explain how your officers, directors, or trustees are selected.

Bylaws were not required for articles of incorporation in the State of Ohio, KBC currently has no official Board of Directors. The Founder has chosen a couple of close associates to serve as her temporary Advisory Team until the official Board is formalized. The temporary advisory team are helping in the development of the nonprofit. KBC also has a plan for acquiring no more than twelve (12) and no fewer than four (4) people for its board of directors. Board members who will be selected from our community of nonprofit agencies and from interested volunteers from the corporate community and government sectors. Each board member will be elected for a term of one year and will be eligible to hold office for three consecutive terms for a total of four years of voluntary board service for our agency. (KBC also believes in identifying leadership qualities in members of under served communities and training them for future board and committee positions. Such training and cultivation will be provided under our training and education programs.)

Part IV Narrative Description of Your Activities

Using an attachment, describe your past, present, and planned activities in a narrative. If you believe that you have already provided some of this information in response to other parts of this application, you may summarize that information here and refer to the specific parts of the application for supporting details. You may also attach representative copies of newsletters, brochures, or similar documents for supporting details to this narrative. Remember that if this application is approved, it will be open for public inspection. Therefore, your narrative description of activities should be thorough and accurate. Refer to the instructions for information that must be included in your description.

KBC is designed to network with other agencies in assisting with their charitable needs. We have estimated that over 65% of our activities would involved giving financial support to these agencies so that they can provide food and clothing distribution to individuals. In addition, we will supply 13% of our activities and resources to help with information and referral for clients who are in need of social services and assistance. KBC is planning on developing an extensive network that will bring together community agencies to dialog about their essential needs that are not being met by the traditional avenues of nonprofit support, in an effort to ensure that adequate support is available for all constituents.

Most of the current activities of KBC have been that of developing our agency from concept to working model. Since this is a new agency with a founder who had experience working with nonprofits but no experience establishing a nonprofit, the process was opened up for discussion and presentation on our website <http://www.kingdombenefitcharities.org> on an ongoing blog discussion.

Our founder has written many articles for EzineArticles (an on-line magazine) dealing with the subject of wealth, philanthropy and even began a series of articles on how to start a nonprofit company. She has also invited the audience to participate in the process as a series of articles covers the entire process of KBC coming into fruition. In addition, the founder has written books that contained subjects that offered solutions to solving the wealth distribution and poverty issues in America. These books are also featured on the website. Our web site also lists our current projects and planned activities as we complete the process of building this company from the ground up. Again, most of our current projects deal with the organization and formation of the agency and not that of officially offering services to the community as of yet. Once KBC is well established as a working nonprofit company we will continue the blog and article presentations by the founder. These online activities would comprise a significant portion of the public information and education portion of our activities. Our charitable services are holistic approach to healing the human condition. Although our goal is to offer assistance to agencies who offer relief to the poor, KBC believes that this goes far beyond throwing money at the issues. It also means that agencies should continue to supply whatever is lacking in order that the poor become rehabilitated and re-established as viable and sustainable individuals in the local economy. To do this, KBC believes that re-education is a key component in rehabilitating individuals in areas that caused their situation of lack. It is also important for individuals to get back on track with finding a meaningful purpose for their lives after tragedy. KBC would provide assistance in job training and employment referrals for interested individuals. Therefore the financial support of agencies who offer this type of education and retraining would comprise approximately 22% of our activities.

2b. Do you have a business relationship with any of your officers, directors, or trustees other than through their position as an officer, director, or trustee? If "Yes," identify the individuals and describe the business relationship with each of your officers, directors, or trustees.
Jo Easton (Advisory Team) is also a client of Spirit & Life Publications which is owned by Paula Matthews (KBC Founder). Spirit & Life Publications is the official publisher for Ms. Easton's books.

Part V Compensation and Other Financial Arrangements With Your Officers, Directors, Trustees, Employees, and Independent Contractors

5b. What procedures will you follow to assure that persons who have a conflict of interest will not have influence over you for setting their own compensation?
First of all, KBC is a volunteer driven company. Eventually, compensation such as salaries and benefits will be limited to an Executive Director and a part-time assistant. It is important for us to minimize our overhead so that at minimum 80% of our funds will be used to benefit our constituents. Certain volunteers may want reimbursement for cash spent on supplies needed for their assignments, but such expenditures must be approved by the Board and/or Executive Director (at the approval of the Board) prior to purchase. In addition, salaries and wages will be held to an absolute minimum and although they may suggest their own compensation, said compensation must be approved by a unanimous vote by the Board of Directors. The all volunteer Board will keep a close eye on the KBC budget, they will want to have a voice in all compensation decisions. All decisions will be fully documented as to the rationale used in determining compensation. (SEE PART V, 5c)

Part V Compensation and Other Financial Arrangements With Your Officers, Directors, Trustees, Employees, and Independent Contractors

5c. What procedures will you follow to assure that persons who have a conflict of interest will not have influence over you regarding business deals with themselves?
Again, all business deals must come before the board for an unanimous vote and all decisions will be fully documented as to the rationale used for approval or disapproval of said action. (SEE PART V, 5b)

Part V Compensation and Other Financial Arrangements With Your Officers, Directors, Trustees, Employees, and Independent Contractors

6a. Do you or will you compensate any of your officers, directors, trustees, highest compensated employees, and highest compensated independent contractors listed in lines 1a, 1b, or 1c through non-fixed payments, such as discretionary bonuses or revenue-based payments? If "Yes," describe all non-fixed compensation arrangements, including how the amounts are determined, who is eligible for such arrangements, whether you place a limitation on total compensation, and how you determine or will determine that you pay no more than reasonable compensation for services. Refer to the instructions for Part V, lines 1a, 1b, and 1c, for information on what to include as compensation.
NO.

Part VI Your Members and Other Individuals and Organizations That receive Benefits From You

1a. In carrying out your exempt purposes, do you provide goods, services, or funds to individuals?
If "Yes," describe each program that provides goods, services, or funds to individuals.
KBC will be offering grants to other nonprofit agencies. We support those who provide goods and services to individuals according to areas KBC has determined as targeted community needs that relieve the poor. Those needs would include food and clothing distribution, housing assistance, counseling and training, information and referral services. Again, the goal of KBC is to network and support the agencies who are currently performing such services.

(SEE ATTACHMENTS A3 AND A4)

Part VI Your Members and Other Individuals and Organizations That receive Benefits From You

1b. In carrying out your exempt purposes, do you provide goods, services, or funds to organizations?
If "Yes," describe each program that provides goods, services, or funds to organizations.

KBC is currently an agency in the making, yet we do plan to offer financial assistance to current service providers in an attempt to increase the amount of good and services to individual and organizations who may be in need. A complete listing of goods and services and a listing of agencies offering such services we support would be made available to all organizations in the community.

KBC has no plans to duplicate services that are being adequately supplied by other organizations, however we will offer any financial support necessary to improve and/or expand the service offerings of those who offer the same services we support. Therefore we anticipate that most of our support of other agencies will be financial. There may be times when specific financial donations may come for a specific service that KBC may not support directly, but it may be offered at one of the network agencies. In those cases, KBC would ask for requests for proposals from those desiring funds.

Part VIII Your Specific Activities

4a. Do you or will you undertake fundraising? Attach a description of each fundraising program.
Other (describe):

Currently prospective donors are encourage to donate on-line through the KBC Paypal account. We anticipate putting a Paypal donation message on all our publications. We will also specify that checks and money orders be made payable to Kingdom Benefit Charities, Inc and sent to KBC at 16781 Chagrin Blvd. Suite 412, Shaker Heights, OH 44120. We also anticipate including a 501 (c)(3) Tax Exempt Notice on all our correspondence as well. Any additional fundraising activities will be the responsibility of the Board of Directors. KBC anticipates that the ideas and timing for such fundraising activities would come from the Board's review of the company's financial position, or a specific community need.

(SEE ATTACHMENT A5)

Part VIII Your Specific Activities

4d. List all states and local jurisdictions in which you conduct fundraising. For each state or local jurisdiction listed, specify whether you fundraise for your own organization, you fundraise for another organization, or another organization fundraises for you.

Currently only listing activities are for Kingdom Benefit Charities, Inc. in the city of Shaker Heights, Cuyahoga County, Ohio. No significant funds have been raised since the KBC website (<http://www.kingdombenefitcharities.org>) went on-line in October 2013.

Part VIII Your Specific Activities

4e. Do you or will you maintain separate accounts for any contributor under which the contributor has the right to advise on the use or distribution of funds? Answer "Yes" if the donor may provide advice on the types of investments, distributions from the types of investments, or the distribution from the donor's contribution account. If "Yes," describe this program, including the type of advice that may be provided and submit copies of any written materials provided to donors.

Paypal is set up to allow donors to specify how the donations are to be used via our website. Although separate accounts may not be issued to handle such requests, the donated funds will be noted and an advice sent authorizing accounting personnel to direct the funds accordingly.

(SEE ATTACHMENT A6)

Part VIII Your Specific Activities

6a. Do you or will you engage in economic development? If "Yes," describe your program.
NO.

Part VIII Your Specific Activities

8. Do you or will you enter into joint ventures, including partnerships or limited liability companies treated as partnerships, in which you share profits and losses with partners other than section 501(c)(3) organizations?

Kingdom Benefit Charities (K.B.C.), Inc. began as a nonprofit company of EPIC Ventures, Inc of Ohio. Although this relationship is neither a partnership nor joint venture in the legal sense of the term, it is the plan of EPIC Ventures to distribute a portion of it's profits to KBC for operating income and distribution to community needs. EPIC has other companies that will also contribute both profits and professional resources to KBC. All of these companies were established by our Founder Paula Matthews as a way to give back to local communities by helping the poor. These companies include: Spirit & Life Publications, EPIC Books, EPIC Books and Cafe, EPIC Film Ventures and EPIC Commercial Real Estate Company. In addition EPIC Ventures staff will be strongly encouraged to give back to their communities either directly or by contributing to KBC by donating their time and talents. EPIC will encourage all of its companies to do the same with their staff.

(SEE ATTACHMENTS A7)

Part VIII Your Specific Activities

10. Do you or will you publish, own, or have rights in music, literature, tapes, artworks, choreography, scientific discoveries, or other intellectual property? If "Yes," explain. Describe who owns or will own any copyrights, patents, or trademarks, whether fees are or will be charged, how the fees are determined, and how any items are or will be produced, distributed, and marketed.

All rights to materials released by KBC will remain with KBC. This will be true for copyrights, patents and trademarks. The fees associated with such materials will be nominal if anything at all. The production, distribution and marketing will be done by EPIC Ventures, Inc, and its companies since publishing, music, video and audio production are their forte. EPIC plans on donating all such services and related fees, unless otherwise arranged in conjunction with other outside companies.

Part VIII Your Specific Activities

11. Do you or will you accept contributions of real property, conservation easements, closely held securities, intellectual property such as patents, trademarks, and copyrights; works of music or art; sciences; royalties; automobiles, boats, planes, or other vehicles; or collectibles of any type? If "Yes," describe each type of contribution, any conditions imposed by the donor on the contribution, and any agreements with the donor regarding the contribution.

KBC will accept most any donation that could be used to assist in its exempt purpose. As mentioned previously (SEE PART VII, LINE 8) our founding company EPIC Ventures, Inc will be donating production time, marketing and distribution of copyright materials. This arrangement could also include royalties from products sold through EPIC and whose profits would be given to KBC for operating or distribution exempt purposes. No conditions or special agreements are generally necessary in these cases. In the case of such offerings from other donors, the donation may only be accepted if it can be used to help KBC further its exempt purpose. For example, someone may choose to have KBC listed as a beneficiary of an estate that includes land, property and all of its contents and collectibles. If after a complete inventory of the estate, KBC decides that the property and its contents could be used for a tax exempt purpose such as additional house for women and children, or additional office space for a off-sight agency location or for another agency use, then such would be accepted and made available to the public through our network of agencies. Otherwise if the donor insists on giving the donation to KBC and there is no clear use for such, it may be necessary to sell off the donation and use the funds for a key exempt purpose. In any case, such a statement of KBC donation policy would be stated up front so the donor can be made aware that it is possible the donation may be sold and proceeds to KBC exempt purposes.

Part VIII Your Specific Activities

13b. Describe how your grants, loans, or other distributions to organizations further your exempt purposes.

Initially Kingdom Benefit Charities will be distributing funds to nonprofit organizations and churches through its granting agency dba Great Grace Foundation. We will distribute funds only for those exempt services that we support. Funds will be made available primarily for program support; however there may be occasion to help with funding for operational support to carry out such programs. In addition, we will be also sending periodic support to religious organizations and churches for missions and community outreach programs. The methodology for selecting which programs to fund will be based upon the request we received; and/or our assessment of funding needs that have not been met through the normal funding channels. For example, it was recently brought to our attention that in certain cities United Way has significantly decreased its funding of housing programs for homeless. Instead, they have channeled their funding to education. Unfortunately, there are more people loosing jobs and homes, so the need has not changed and yet UW support was eliminated because it was no longer one of their targeted needs. In such cases, KBC would evaluate the alleged funding deficiency and attempt find options for making up for the shortfall. It could mean encouraging several homeless agencies collaborate their efforts to increase their

Our listing of grants or financial assistance would go to nonprofit agencies with programs that support the programs we target to fund. (SEE PART VI, 1A)

Part VIII Your Specific Activities

13d. Identify each recipient organization and any relationship between you and the recipient organization.

No such relationships exist at the moment, however KBC will not discriminate against organizations that come unsolicited to ask us for assistance. We will welcome agencies to come to us to solicit funds for their nonprofit program because they have a need. We would also release our own request for proposals during our established grant cycles (currently no such cycles exist). In any case, the relationships with these organizations is strictly that of Grantor and Grantee. No unusual influence will determine how we grant funds or to whom we select to receive the funds.

Part VIII Your Specific Activities

13e. Describe the records you keep with respect to the grants, loans, or other distributions you make.

Accurate and detailed records are important to KBC. It is our desire to produce and make public a calendar of grants and their prospective deadlines. This will be made available online and to those who request such by mail or email. In addition we will keep a specific file on all of the grants offered in date order. Within this file will be a copy of the RPF announcements and all publicly released informational updates. In addition, this file will include the applications and/proposals, along with all related supplemental attachments. A separate file will be held for all applicants. The applications will be divided into two categories: 1) complete or 2) incomplete applications. It will be noted on the submission form that only complete applications will be considered for our granting purposes. It is up to each applicant to follow the instructions and complete the application process accordingly. Unless it is for clarification of items on the application, KBC will not contact applicants to complete their applications.

All completed applications being held for our granting consideration will be placed in a formal review file after the filing deadline has past. This file will include all follow up correspondence with the applicant.

All unsolicited requests for funds, will be held in yet another file. For those requests that fall within our normal granting process, a letter will be sent directing the prospective applicant to formally apply according to what we are offering. Some special needs and/or emergency cases will be handled on an individual basis.

For each of our grantees, there will be yet another file for a six-month follow up review. In this review each grantee must provide to KBC evidence that the funds granted were being used for the exempt purpose for which they were given. All review materials will also be placed in this file. Those who have not use the funds as contract, the grant will be considered in default and the recipient will be expected to return all the funds used, with interest. All updates and follow up with such a grantee will be placed into a delinquent file for collection/ and or legal action.

Part VIII Your Specific Activities

13f. Describe your selection process, including whether you do any of the following:

- (i) Do you require an application form? If "Yes," attach a copy of the form.
- (ii) Do you require a grant proposal? If "Yes," describe whether the grant proposal specifies your responsibilities and those of the grantee, obligates the grantee to use the grant funds only for the purposes for which the grant was made, provides for periodic written reports concerning the use of grant funds, requires a final written report and an accounting of how grant funds were used, and acknowledges your authority to withhold and/or recover grant funds in case such funds are, or appear to be, misused.

Although formal applications are not necessary to apply for our funds, KBC may elect to use applications during its selection process if the Board of Directors deems it necessary. If indeed the Board decided to use such an application, as Founder I would make the following suggestions. First of all, that it would be required that all applicants submit a detailed narrative describing how the funds would be used, including a estimated budget showing the impact of granted funds upon the total budget for the agency and/or program being funded. Such an application form has not yet been adopted, but a sample of what might be used is included with this 501(c)(3) application.

Once KBC is formally organized with Board Members in place, a similar application form would be made available for use that would be fine tuned and customized by said Board Members. On the application form it would be clearly noted that only completed applications will be considered for selection. It also will be noted that KBC will conduct a review of how the funds were used six months after the funds are granted. If the grantee failed to comply with using the funds for the stated tax exempt purposed requests, such a grantee would be required to repay the funds with interest. KBC may also require to recover funds through collection and/or legal action if necessary. This statement will also be clearly noted on both

13g. Describe your procedures for oversight of distributions that assure you the resources are used to further your exempt purposes, including whether you require periodic and final reports on the use of resources.

Six month reviews of grants will be conducted for the entire length of the granting period. KBC will also request for a final report on the effective of the funds in meeting the exempt purpose. In addition to reports, KBC will request testimonial and other documentation that supports their claim. Successful grant outcomes will be used by KBC to highlight positive achievements in our efforts to improve how agencies and organization can work together to supply the needs of their constituents.

Part X Public Charity Status

6b()(b) Attach a list showing the name and amount contributed by each person, company, or organization whose gifts totaled more than the 2% amount. If the answer is "None," check this box.

NONE.

About Us

Posted on September 6, 2013 by Founder — No Comments ↓

Kingdom Benefit Charities (K.B.C.), Inc., dba Great Grace Foundation, is a nonprofit whose purpose is to fund a variety of charitable interests that benefit local communities by enhancing the quality of life of those suffering from poverty, lack and abuse. Our goal is to support nonprofit agencies within a targeted community by supplying funding and other resources in areas where government agencies or larger public charities fall short due to constraints on resources and excessive red tape. When necessary, we will also design programs and create specialized nonprofits to accommodate the unmet needs of a specific community.

K.B.C., Inc. and foundation (Great Grace Foundation) are the nonprofit corporation under the parentage of Eternal Purpose In Christ (E.P.I.C.) Ventures, Incorporated, of Shaker Heights, Ohio. Our parent company (E.P.I.C. Ventures) is a for profit corporation whose primary business is publishing (book, film and television). KBC was initially established as a conduit in which profits from our companies under EPIC would be channeled to local communities throughout the world. This is EPIC Ventures' way of giving back to the communities in which it does business. EPIC's goal is also to publish and produce materials and products that significantly enhance the quality of life for its audience as well, so that both our profits gained and our contributions would be both ethical and socially responsible.

By establishing Kingdom Benefit Charities, Inc., EPIC Ventures hopes to abandon the profit for profit's sake ideology of most American businesses and instead has chosen God's Kingdom Ideology which is based upon the law of Seedtime and Harvest. Whatever condition exists in our world today, is a result of the seeds we have sown in the past. If we want a future harvest that's better than the past, we must sow a different kind of seed now.

From the entire E.P.I.C. Ventures corporate family, we hope that our business model will be just the seed sown to produce an even greater harvest of socially responsible and community focused businesses in our nation.

To learn more about the ideology behind KBC, read our Founder's Message Page.

God's Grace Will Abound To Those Who Sow Into Others

Posted on January 28, 2014 by Founder

One of the greatest seeds of righteousness can be found in giving to others. Whatever we do for others, God will make happen for us (Ephesians 6:8). The more generous we give, the more God will return to us so that we can give even more. As it is written "He has dispersed abroad, He has given to the poor; His righteousness endures forever," . . . Here is the promise:

And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

Founder's Message

Posted on September 24, 2013 by Founder — No Comments ↓

Starting a not for profit agency is not something that just happened over night for me. This agency has been in the planning stages for about fourteen years, and looking back on my life and my professional training, it was more than twenty years ago that my eyes were opened to needs of every day citizens in America and around the world. I can recall the day that it all began for me. I had booked a vacation at a posh Mexican resort that was featured on a television show called, Lifestyles of the Rich and Famous. It was absolutely fabulous having my own private pool and wait staff at my beck and call, but I also remember feeling the urge to get in a car and take a drive around the city. It didn't take more than a trip of two or three blocks away from the resort, when I saw extreme poverty. It was then that compassion began to overwhelm me everywhere I travelled. I found myself investigating the lives of people around me and I realized that most of my life I have lived in a bubble; both isolated and insensitive to those who were suffering due to poverty and lack. I spent most of my career in diligent pursuit of the American Dream. In fact, I use to scoff at friends and associates who worked for not for profit agencies. It was inconceivable to me how anyone could work and not expect to profit financially. I thought they were wasting their time and talent on people who didn't have the guts to go out and make things work on their own. It was also my belief that in America, everyone had the same opportunity to achieve their dreams, but I would soon learn that some in our nation were too impoverished to consider dreaming of anything more than a decent place to live or a job that paid above minimum wage. Several years later, the inconceivable happened. I was victimized by domestic violence and went thru a divorce that nearly cost me my life. The opposing attorney vowed to do all in his power to see that I would become impoverished and never work again. He almost succeeded. My only recourse would come from the very not for profit agencies whom I had scoffed at years earlier. It was both a humbling and educational experience to see life from the other spectrum of the American Dream. It could have turned into a nightmare had it not been for the spiritual awakening that occurred in my life. My attorney had me placed in a battered women's shelter. I remember arguing with God about how I didn't belong there. The Holy Spirit said something that would ring true all the years of my life. He asked one question, "How can they come out unless you go in and bring them out?" For the first time in my life, I realized that what happened to me was not meant to destroy me, but to empower me to deliver others from the same conditions. This I have found also to be true in solving all social issues. From a spiritual perspective, it is much like it was in the Biblical story of Joseph, who was betrayed by his brothers and sold into slavery. Most people never move past their tragedies in life. They either wallow in them or they hold them up as badges of honor for having enduring the suffering and pain. While there is some merit in enduring the situation, there is even greater victory in triumphing to become successful in life in spite of what happened. It is even greater than that. There is a matter of developing compassion for the suffering of others.

Joseph had to experience the hurt, pain and humiliating circumstances in order to feel compassion for others whom he would eventually sustain during times of famine. What sustained Joseph during his exile in slavery was the dream God had given him. It successfully transformed his way of thinking and helped him endure the most deplorable conditions. My experience was similar to that of Joseph. I've been in the system. I know what is like being labeled homeless, or a survivor of domestic violence. I experienced the injustices of family court and understand how some states marginalize women and children. I also know what it is like when someone with authority is determined that you will fail in life and they do all in their power to make it happen. Once in the system, you are socially and spiritually labeled. That is something most people don't talk about. It is like those who are ex-criminal offenders. People run from them instead of giving them a new start in life. The entire criminal justice and welfare system places a mark upon lives that cannot be easily erased. Consequently, people are bound to a system that is both supplying them limited sustenance, while labeling them a failure and crippling them to remain a failure for the rest of their lives. It is a form of slavery.

Throwing money at social programs will not work unless people are delivered spiritually and re-educated on how to live. I have worked and volunteered with the United Way of America, in several cities and in many roles and responsibilities. I've worked alongside many agency directors who worked tirelessly to help local communities. The missing component was always the spiritual and educational deliverance from social issues.

Attachment A3 Founder's Message (Part VI, Line 1b) <http://kingdombenefitcharities.org/founders-message/>

Recidivism was an issue. Few people were getting better and moving on with their lives. We see that with the welfare program where parents on welfare breed children who get on welfare. People are just doing what they were taught to do. Future generations follow suit, and it soon becomes a spiritual issue. Even if given the opportunity to succeed, many people never will because they either don't recognize the opportunity, or they don't know how to utilize the opportunity for their own good. That's where Kingdom Benefit Charities, Inc comes in. We take a Holistic approach to treating social disorders and poverty. We are designed to offer programs and services that rehabilitate and empower individuals and families. We also have a business model that goes beyond limits of similar agencies. I call it the Kingdom Business Model. It's a way of operating in business that provides a product or service to the public with profits from such business being used to fund not for profit concerns. Our parent company, E.P.I.C. Ventures, Inc., and its network of companies was designed to be the mechanism used to produce the necessary resources to support not for profit activities. We started Great Grace Foundation and eventually we expect to develop other agencies within our corporate structure, and eventually open up our not for profit network to agencies wishing to partner with us.

Kingdom Benefit Charities, Inc, is a unique approach to funding and developing social services. Join me as I take this journey of developing our agency from concept to working model. I will be writing a series of posts to document our progress and the issues we face. As we grow, I also want this website to highlight our accomplishments, as well as testimonies from those who have benefitted from our organization.

Thanks for visiting our page. Join in the discussion or contact us directly if we can be of service.

Our first priority is the urgent needs of those suffering due to abuse, neglect, poverty, war, famine or natural disasters. Our goal is to impact local communities and regions of the world where services are not readily available. Impoverished communities are given our highest priority. We also want to impact the urban youth by providing financial assistance to ensure that intercity programs and services are made available for those who are heavily deprived because of extreme poverty or gang warfare. We believe in the Holistic Treatment of Social Issues.

Humans are multi-dimensional beings consisting of body, mind and spirit. Most agencies deal with the body by providing food, shelter and clothing. Few consider that their constituents also need training and re-education. Even fewer agencies address the spiritual issues that caused the condition or dysfunction.

At Kingdom Benefit Charities, Inc,

We fund and network with agencies that offer programs and services that focus on the total and complete well being of human beings under a vast number of circumstances. These programs and services will encompass the total needs of the human body, mind and spirit. We desire to give people a leg up and the training necessary to do the same for others. This approach to solving social issues is designed to have lifelong effectiveness in the life of individual, the family, community and eventually the world.

Our Slogan: "Taking Care of Humans, One Need at a Time"

Kingdom Benefit Charities, dba Great Grace Foundation

Our Primary Target:

- The hungry and thirsty, the stranger, the naked, the sick and the prisoner
- The injured and stranded traveler
- The neglected widows and fatherless
- The working poor and needy, both citizen and immigrant
- The solitary or lonely person having no family

We offer financial support to organizations that offer relief to the poor; in particular the needs of women, children and elderly. Our first priority is the urgent needs of those suffering due to abuse, neglect, poverty, war, famine or natural disasters. Our goal is to impact local communities and regions of the world where services are not readily available. Impoverished communities are given our highest priority. We also want to impact the urban youth by providing financial assistance to ensure that intercity programs and services are made available for those who are heavily deprived because of extreme poverty or gang warfare. We encourage smaller independent service providers to apply for our resources in areas where major funding organizations fall short due to excessive red tape and other constraints on

We believe in the Holistic Treatment of Social Issues.

Humans are multi-dimensional beings consisting of body, mind and spirit. Most agencies deal with the body by providing food, shelter and clothing. Few consider that their constituents also need training and re-education. Even fewer agencies address the spiritual issues that caused the condition or dysfunction.

At Kingdom Benefit Charities, Inc,

We fund and network with agencies that offer programs and services that focus on the total and complete well being of human beings under a vast number of circumstances. These programs and services will encompass the total needs of the human body, mind and spirit. We desire to give people a leg up and the training necessary to do the same for others. This approach to solving social issues is designed to have lifelong effectiveness in the life of individual, the family, community and eventually the world.

Programs and Services We Fund

K.B.C. targets the following needs for distribution of our funds: Housing, Health/Recovery Services & Preventative Education, Employment Placement and Career Training, Free

Professional Services To Small Business, Community Service, Foreign Missions, Community Outreach and board training

All K.B.C. funding activities are handled by our own foundation, Great Grace Foundation.

Every man according as he purposes in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work.

II Corinthians 9:7-8

Letter of Appeal to IRS

February 26, 2014

To whom it may concern:

It may seem rather odd, even absurd for someone to incorporate a nonprofit and apply for 501 c (3) status without an apparent financial plan of operation. Actually, there is a financial plan. I spent the better part of twelve years doing research on how I wanted this company to be run. I performed statistical analyses of population growth trends for the next fifty years. There are numerous charts of estimated poverty trends and an assessment of needs over that period of time as well. I have developed hundreds of pages of documentation in my corporate business plan. None of that detail is included in this 1023 Application package. Not, because the numbers are no longer valid, but because after all the research and hard work Kingdom Benefit Charities has not yet taken off as anticipated. The people who initially were to help with the project were distracted in many other directions. Then the profits never came in as expected for EPIC Ventures. These profits were to jumpstart the nonprofit. We are still convinced that with help from profitable companies, our nonprofit model will become very successful in supplying much needed funds at a time that our nation and so many companies are struggling. So as Founder, I am stepping out alone to accomplish this goal.

Everyone is struggle to one degree or another, but the needs of the impoverished are becoming greater. There are more people applying for the dwindling public assistance that the government is fighting to sustain. If the government fails financial whose fault is it? It's every Americans fault, and especially the fault of American businesses who exist solely for profit and who dump their unemployed upon the government to clean up the mess. It is a mess when unemployment is causing many to continue to lose their jobs and their homes at unheard of rates of increase. It is also a mess when traditional nonprofits are struggling to keep up with the demand for assistance. Many of these nonprofits are not going to the companies who caused the problem they are seeking help from the government. This makes for a vicious cycle of impoverishment that won't stop until it either forces the government to complete failure, or until companies like EPIC Ventures steps into the nonprofit arena to lend a hand. It's called giving back, but not as an afterthought after the big profits roll in. We began Kingdom Benefit Charities as a part of our business model to give back as a matter of business. EPIC Ventures exists for the sole purpose of giving back to the communities of our country. Giving back products and services that enhance our way of seeing and being in this world. We also desire to give back financially with everything we create. That is where Kingdom Benefit Charities comes in. We want to set an example that will model how business should be done and we invite other companies and our prospective partners to join us in this endeavor.

As Founder, I am passionate about what Kingdom Benefit Charities can be. Also as CEO of EPIC Ventures, I am confident that we can change how the world does business. We want to be the example of creating profit for a purpose that is greater than just making money, but it about making a difference in the lives of all our citizens, both great and small. Therefore we are stepping out on a dream believing that if we build it, our resources will come. After all this came as a divine dream, a dream that keeps growing daily even if the reality has not yet taken place as we desired. We are still confident that we are in great company. Like other great dreamers. It took Moses 40 years before he saw his people living in freedom from poverty. Joseph's dream took over 20 years before he was able to supply the world with food during famine. His divine inspiration made Egypt the most powerful nation on the earth.

At EPIC Ventures, Inc we are so confident in Kingdom Benefit Charities that we are willing to risk all we have to make it happen. To some it may be easier just to write a check and donate to a nonprofit, but our choice it to take an active part in making a difference the lives of so many who are suffering from poverty and financial lack. We believe that it doesn't take great wealth to begin, only a great idea, persistence and a willingness to help others in their time of need. Therefore we humbly submit this application form 1023 for tax exempt status in hopes that the IRS will see our vision and help us obtain our goal.

Sincerely,

Paula Matthews
