

2" that the top module
overhangs the bottom module

Good illustration of the gap between the left and right modules. At this time the modules have also sunken 2" into the basement down the entire center line. This resulted in wall and ceilings out of plumb. Walls down the center line of the home are up to 1.5" wider at the bottom of a door threshold than they are at the top of the same door threshold.