Age Friendly offers different volunteer opportunities. Please select no more than two of the following seven cohort groups that best suits your skills, interests and qualifications.

Advocacy: Help bring attention to issues that affect older adults and advocate for solutions.

Communication: Disseminate info to membership, via email, flyers, etc.

Economic Empowerment: Recruit businesses to offer age-friendly discounts and/or improvements in their stores.

Health & Wellness: Plan, promote and implement health and wellness activities for members; do monthly check-in calls; and notify members when someone passes.

Intergenerational: Engage youth in educational and cultural programming.

Membership: Recruit new members and create Membership Committee Guide providing services and resources to the members.

Social Inclusion: Provide opportunities for older adults to interact socially.

I can make the minimum time commitment of one-year to participate in the mandatory two (2) hour monthly meetings and complete at least four (4) cohort activity hours per month.

Membership Fee is a flat annual fee of $25 per person, due each September. The fee is the same for Ambassadors and volunteers. The distinction between Ambassadors and volunteers will be in our structure of any additional fees. For example, non-members (formerly participants) will pay the full cost, volunteers pay a percentage of the cost and Ambassadors will be free of charge. Note, another distinction between Ambassadors and volunteers, Ambassadors are required to recruit a new member annually.
