

MERIDIAN GRAIN RINGS

galvanized@meridianmfg.com | meridianmfg.com/grain-rings

Our low cost per bushel Grain Rings are ideal for temporary or intermediate grain storage solutions.

Built to the same quality standards you've come to expect from Meridian, our grain rings are self-supporting and designed to withstand large a volume of crop. Established during bumper-crop years, intermediate grain storage practice solves the dilemma of producing more crops than storage allows. The ability to safely store grain outdoors for temporary purposes is the answer to your modern operating needs. Don't let full silos stop you from enjoying a record yield, get help from the grain ring.
