Saint Denis y Saint John Leonardi

Saint Denis, patron of Paris, was the city of lights' first bishop and of France, and one of her greatest lights. He was likely martyred in the mid-third century in the Decian persecution and, as the legend goes, a cephalophore, literally, 'one who carries his own head': Sentenced to prison for the Faith, he was soon decapitated, on the hill now known as Montmartre overlooking the city of Paris, where the glorious basilica of Sacre-Couer now stands, which has had perpetual adoration since August 1, 1885. Saint John Leonardi John Leonardi (1543-1609), a zealous Italian apostle, founded the congregation of the Mother of God, whose priest-members traveled throughout Tuscany urging the people to a stronger interest in their religion. Father John Leonardi longed to convert pagans, but his spiritual director, St. Philip Neri, told him to remain in Italy. So instead he founded in Rome a seminary to train for the priesthood young men from all the mission lands.

Saint Callistus I

San Calixto I

Fue el decimosexto Papa de la Iglesia Católica. Su pontificado abarcó el periodo entre los años 217 a 222. Calixto fue el primer Papa "liberto"; es decir, tuvo la condición de esclavo -estuvo sometido al durísimo trabajo en las minas-, pero llegó a obtener su libertad. La comunidad cristiana lo rescató, incluso con la intervención de Marcia, la concubina de Commodo, y entonces Calixto colaboró con el Papa Víctor y con Ceferino, a quien sucedió como Papa en el 217. Cuando era diácono, después de un destierro en la isla de Cerdeña tuvo a su cuidado el cementerio de la vía Apia que lleva su nombre, donde dejó para la posteridad las memorias de mártires, y elegido papa, promovió la recta doctrina, reconcilió benignamente a los apóstatas, terminando su intenso pontificado con la gloria del martirio. En este día se conmemora su sepultura en el cementerio de Calepodio, en la vía Aurelia, en Roma (c. 222). Etimología: Calixto = Aquel de gran belleza, viene del griego

¿SABES QUÉ ES UNA DIÓCESIS?

1
 Es una porción de la Iglesia Católica encomendada a un Obispo, quien, para dirigirla pastoralmente, cuenta con el apoyo de su presbiterio.

2
 Las diócesis pueden alcanzar canónicamente el grado de arquidiócesis, y en lugar de estar a cargo de un Obispo, quedan bajo la dirección un Arzobispo.

3
 Cada diócesis o arquidiócesis constituye una Iglesia particular, y está circunscrita a un territorio determinado para efectos de operatividad.
