God's Christmas Tree

Some people, when a Christmas tree they see may only think it's just a tree with shining lights and a star so bright and pretty colors that gleam in the night. But to me it's so much more than lights and stars and ornaments galore. For when a Christmas tree I see, this is what it means to me:

At the top is a star shining so bright,
like the one shone on the first Christmas night,
or an Angel, like those who to the shepherds did sing
"Glory to God..." for the new born King.

The tree, made of wood, with it's branches spread wide,
is like the cross upon which our Savior died.

It's color, evergreen, means life everlasting
which can be yours if you will just ask Him.

It's lights, shining so pretty and bright,
are like "The Light of the World", God's Son - Jesus Christ.

Like pieces of tinsel, too many to count,
are God's unending mercies - they freely abound.

The ornaments are a bright crimson red
like great drops of blood that for you He shed.

Garland, gracefully wrapped around the tree,
is like God's grace which wraps you and me.

The gifts under the tree are as nice as can be,
but the greatest ever is Jesus, you see,

for He came to this earth to die on a tree
so you and I from sin might be free.

So give Him your heart and happy you will be that His gift of life has made you free.

How pretty are these wonderful trees,
but none are as beautiful as God's Christmas Tree.

Merry Christmas!
Love, Mrs. Courtney
