KNOW >

Parent/Teacher: Say: Have you ever been excited about a vacation? Did you count down the days until you could pack your suitcase and leave for a new adventure? Did you tell everyone about your plans? That's how many people feel about Heaven. They're excited to go, and they tell everyone because they want them to go as well. Did you know that Christians have a free ticket to Heaven?

GROW >

Parent/Teacher: In the beginning of the New Testament, we see the journey towards the greatest event in History. The birth, death, and resurrection of Jesus changed the world in ways no one expected. Then, the birth and growth of Christianity led us all the way to the last book, Revelation. It was called Revelation, because that's exactly what it was, a revelation God gave to John about what was coming.

READ REVELATION 21:1-7

John describes the beauty that is waiting for us in Heaven. Imagine the excitement when others heard of John's revelation. Living with God in a place with no sorrow, no pain, and no tears sounds too good to be true, but it is. Everything will be made new! During the time of John's revelation, Christians were dying just for what they believed. It must have been overwhelming and confusing for new believers in new churches. Learning about Heaven and knowing their loved ones were in a place with perfect peace must have been comforting. Instead of dreading death, they could look forward to life in Heaven! We also have the same hope of Heaven, seeing Jesus, sitting in the presence of God, and being reunited with those who made it there before us.

GO >

Parent/Teacher: Say: If someone were to walk up to you and give you tickets for a round trip, all expenses paid, to the destination of your choice, what would you think? You might be skeptical since offers like that don't happen very often, if ever. Usually, when someone offers something like that, there are strings attached. Very few people want something for nothing. Thankfully, a ticket to Heaven has no strings attached for Christians. The only thing we must do is believe in God and accept Jesus as Savior. Jesus already paid the price on the Cross

HIDE IT YOUR HEART >

Parent/Teacher: Say: As I said God spoke life into each writer so they could keep God's words alive. Listen to what it says in 2 Timothy 3:16... this is our memory verse for this series as well.

"All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness." 2 Timothy 3:16 (NIV)

- Now let's learn it together.

Suggested activity:

Have the kids read the verse together, read it normal, then in a whisper, then shout it out.

Parent/Teacher: Come up with other fun ways for the kids to remember the verse.
