

I CAN'T WAIT!!

“However, as it is written: ‘What no eye has seen, what no ear has heard, and what no human mind has conceived’ — the things God has prepared for those who love him— 1 Cor. 2:9”

Have you ever just imagined what heaven will be like? Just put your five senses there. How will they be affected?

See. What will it look like? Buildings, tents or something else? What colors will God use? Will there be new colors we’ve never seen before? What will people look like? Will we recognize anyone or appear completely different? What will the yards, trees and bushes look like. Will they be modeled off Dr. Seuss or something even better. Will we be able to see it from a distance? From above? Below? What will Heaven look like? What will Jesus look like?

Smell. What will be the “scent of Heaven?” Will it be earthy or perfume? Flowers? Musk? Will it be different for each of us. Will our noses perceive differently the aromas? I know there will be a feast. Will it smell like someone’s cooking? Like my grandma’s house at Thanksgiving? Will people have odor? You know, beyond the fragrances we spray on. What do angels smell like? What does Jesus smell like?

Touch. What will Heaven feel like? Will we walk barefoot all the time in lush fields of cool grass? Will we walk on gold like concrete? When we embrace those that waited for us at the gate, will it feel the same? When we hold hands (and I want to hold hands), will it still feel the same as it does now? Will I still get tingles and butterflies? What will trees feel like? Pets? The wings of an angel? What will it feel like when I touch the Lamb of God?

Hear. When the trumpet sounds, does it sound like a regular trumpet? Will it echo throughout the New Heaven and the New Earth? Will we tremble? Will it be a summons to come to worship the Lamb? What language will we speak? Will it be a new or old one? Will there be different tongues? Will we still hear a breeze on the horizon? The trickle of a stream? The crickets and birds? What will Heaven sound like? What will Jesus sound like?

Taste. This is a weird one but... What will The Feast taste like? Will it be a “well balanced meal,” or all the things we would’ve wanted more of? What will we drink? Wine? Grape juice? Water? Living Water? Will there be fruit trees and bushes? Vegetable gardens? Will they be the same as we have now or totally new? What will be the tastes of Heaven?

Sometimes, I can almost feel it there. Like a sweet dream from beyond the veil. And I know it will be even more!

From My Heart,

Billy
