Hoping the new year finds you well. Winter has made an appearance, so it's a good time to spend time with your sewing machine. With that in mind, we have plenty of classes, new fabrics, books and patterns for your winter projects. Be sure to mark your calendar to attend the Tree City Quilters Show in April, the details are listed below.

We are excited to be celebrating our 45th year in business! Hard to believe we've been supplying fabric and notions to the seamstress and quilter for that long. We will be celebrating in July so stay tuned.

Stop in or call to schedule one or more classes. Let us know if there is something you are interested in learning and we'll see about scheduling a class. Make sure you visit our website and Facebook page to find out about new items, impromptu classes and specials.

Hope to see you soon,

Cindy and Staff
