

Greater Austin Area USBC
Participant Release Agreement

Use of Name or Likeness

Participants grant the Greater Austin Areas USBC ("GAAUSBC"), tournament organizers and sponsors permission to use their likeness, image, and voice in photographs, videos, and other promotional materials for legitimate purposes, without any compensation.

Assumption of Risk & Waiver of Liability

Participants assume all risks of participation and agree to hold harmless, release, and forever discharge the GAAUSBC, sponsors, officials, volunteers, and the bowling alley (the "Released Parties") from any and all liability for death, personal injury, property damage, or any other loss, damage, or expense that may arise from participation in this event, even if arising from the negligence of the Released Parties.

Prize Money, Side Pots, Brackets, and Payment

Participants understand and agree to the prize structure and payout schedule for the tournament, including any optional side pots and/or brackets. Side pot and bracket payouts may be adjusted if the bracket does not fill completely and all decisions regarding payouts are the tournament director's sole discretion. Participants agree to abide by all rules and regulations regarding entry into the tournament including Rule 319 a-2 (10 pin rule) which also applies to all optional bracket entries. Tournament officials have final say on all matters related to brackets, including disputes, and their disputes are final.

USBC Code of Conduct

All participants are expected to uphold the USBC Code of Conduct. The tournament organizers reserve the right to disqualify any individual or team for violating rules, misconduct, or unsportsmanlike conduct behavior. In such cases, entry fees and prizes may be forfeited.
