Washington Association for Substance Abuse and Violence Prevention (WASAVP) is excited to announce its first 2021 offering of "The Art and Science of Community Organizing."

A 6-part remote training for community and coalition leaders/organizers and substance abuse and violence prevention practitioners.

This first WASVP training offering of 2021 is spread out across seven (7) weeks.

- Week One: Tuesday, January 19 and Wednesday, January 20 - 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM, daily.
- Week Two: Monday, January 25 and Tuesday, January 26 - 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM, daily.
- Week Three, Four and Five: no formal sessions; only scheduled Learning Coalition Check-Ins
- Week Six: Monday, February 22 and Tuesday, February 23 - 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM, daily.

- Training series participants will form Learning Coalitions with other Washington State community wellness promotion professionals to explore cross-cutting themes (critical self-awareness; cultural humility and equity literacy; leading change; and promoting sustainability) as a strategy to strengthen their knowledge and skills for community engagement, organizing and mobilization.

- Attendees will benefit from the experience of a team of seasoned prevention practitioners who through their cumulative experience, teaching, coaching and the unpacking of 6 Tool Boxes (1) Community Outreach and Engagement; 2) Coalition Building; 3) Group Facilitation; 4) Working with Volunteers; 5) Strategic Planning; and 6) Joint Problem Solving, facilitate a dynamic and very special learning opportunity.

- The team of facilitators include: Carol Owens, Linda Thompson, Liz Wilhelm, Michele Rastovich, Priscilla Lisicich, Ramona Leber, Wanda Rochelle and Ginlin Woo.
