

BPFL DRAFT DAY ITINERARY

1. PREPARING FOR THE DRAFT

- ☐ Setup each owner's spot along with a main league area.
- ☐ Setup front booth with a mic, laptop, and podium.
- ☐ Setup all displays and merch for league draft.
- ☐ Setup draft board and computer for pick selection.
- ☐ Have booklets ready for each owner, along with awards, merch, plus beer and food along with collection of fees.

2. PRE-DRAFT

We take the bottom 2 from each division from last season's results, BUSCH vs POUNDERS and do a game to decide divisions, that will be selected before the draft.

- ☐ Commish makes opening statements, welcoming, rules, house rules, and closing.
- ☐ Commish takes questions then introduces the rookies (if any-THEY SHOTGUN A BEER), recent league winner, toilet bowl winner, and league loser (speeches from each). Also hands out payouts to top 3, clothing, hardware, along with last season's awards (award show).
- ☐ All voting is done before the draft has taken place.
- ☐ Last Place announces the start of the draft and who is on the clock.
- ☐ Last Place announces all first-round picks with who is on the clock, pick is in, who's next, yda, yda. Last Place is responsible for all first-round picks, each person comes up to him for the first-round pick, then they do their own after round 1. He is also responsible for placing all of his own, being the winner's beer bitch, and making sure the draft runs smoothly.

3. THE DRAFT

- ☐ Each person who is subjected to wearing something for the draft must do so for the draft and the entire night (they are responsible for these items until the next season's draft, you replace if damaged or lost).
- ☐ Last Place announces all first-round picks for everyone.
- ☐ Draft TIMEOUT after round 7 is completed (smoke break).
- ☐ If you screw up, take someone already taken, or do something dumb during the draft, you are subjected to a shot. (Flags)

4. POST DRAFT

- ☐ Look over draft board, guess the winner and last place finishers.
- ☐ Hangout and bullshit, loser wears suit out to the bars if we go out.
- ☐ We all do clean up.
