Jim Finch, President of the Kiwanis Foundation of Charlotte County Pictured with Foundation board Eddie Webb, Frank Desguin, Ray Anderson and Lee Swift

Jim Finch is finishing up his 2 year president position with the Kiwanis Foundation of Charlotte County (KFCC). The Foundation started in 1983 and its purpose is to provide scholarships for students in Charlotte County and meets 8-9 times a year. Five members from our club are currently on the foundation's board.

Last year, the foundation awarded $165,500 in scholarships. There are two scholarship categories: Merit and Need. Merit scholarships are for the elite students with high grade point averages and were worth $1,760 last year. The need scholarship is for students in a low-income family environment. Families had to provide proof of their income but each scholarship was worth $4,714 and is renewable each year based on the student's performance. There are currently 39 endowed scholarship - an endowed scholarship has a $20,000 price tag and can be paid in one lump sum or in $5000 a year.

Starting around Nov/Dec, Jim will send out an email to allow us to recommend a senior for a scholarship. KFCC is an amazing foundation for our county!

not win the $89 grand prize.
The last two weeks, the winner

Just saying.....

Caring for Kids

Ray at Liberty Elementary

Charlotte Harbor appears to be the last of the schools putting in a request for items. They were looking for totes, and the Animal Welfare Shelter had 100 clear backpacks that they wanted us to take! The school will get their items tomorrow!

Last week, 5 schools received their orders. Ray found out that Liberty was looking for 10 bike helmets and so Whitney will be delivering those tomorrow Looks like we have a total of 9 schools that we were able to serve this year!
