

Welcome to Klamath

We invite you to come,
meet me in Klamath.

Crater Lake National Park

Klamath County is a place like no other with diverse landscapes and wide-open spaces. Breathtaking views of Crater Lake and expansive lava flows, the Cascade Mountains, teeming rivers, and pristine forests with miles of trails to explore. Flourishing communities to take in a show, explore museums, discover unique shops, enjoy a meal, and stay in comfort. We invite you to come, meet me in Klamath.

DISCOVER THE Wonders OF THE KLAMATH BASIN

The story of the Klamath region can't be told without a nod to its volcanic past. Mount Mazama imploded nearly 8,000 years ago, which led to the formation of Crater Lake – and further south, lava flows dating back almost 70,000 years formed the landscape of the modern-day Lava beds National Monument.

The Gem of the Cascades, Crater Lake, is a shimmering body of water inside a caldera left from violent eruption. The lake, which is the deepest lake in the U.S., can be explored many ways, including taking a boat tour to Wizard Island, a Crater Lake Trolley Tour around the Rim, and the many hiking trails throughout the national park.

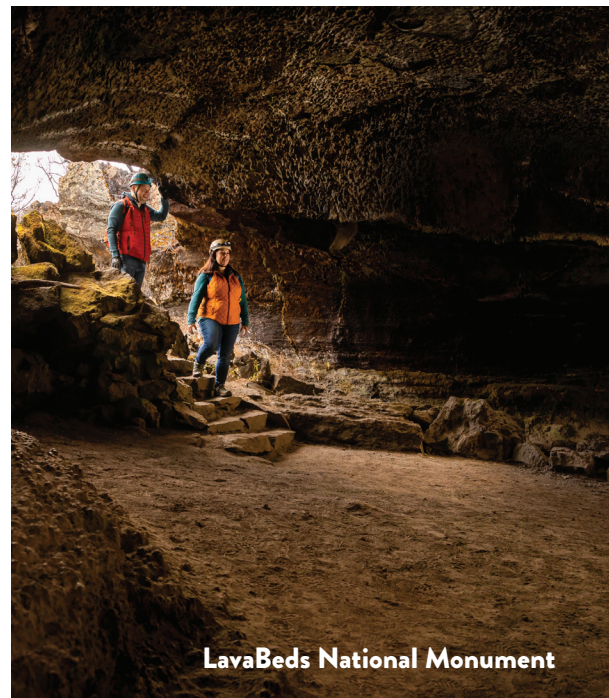

To the south, located on the California-Oregon border, you'll find Lava Beds National Monument, a land of turmoil, both geological and historical. Here you can find over 900 caves to explore for all skill levels, 18 alone on the popular Cave Loop, hiking trails, wildlife overlooks and interpretive signs throughout.

DISCOVER Culture AND HERITAGE

Woven into its beautiful quilt of peaks, pine forests, lakes, and juniper woodlands, Klamath County has some truly engrossing history from multiple Native American cultures to one of the country's most significant World War II landmarks.

You can view exhibits and artifacts reflecting local Native American culture at the Favell Museum or explore the history first hand on the Modoc War Audio Tour. History comes alive at the Klamath County Museum and the Baldwin Hotel Museum.

Roughly 65 miles northeast of Klamath Falls, the Mitchell Monument commemorates the only deaths in the continental U.S. caused by enemy action during the Second World War where a Japanese balloon bomb exploded and killed 6 people.

LavaBeds National Monument

Klamath County Museum

DISCOVER Adventure FOR EVERYONE

Spanning the heart of the Cascades and pastoral farmland in the Cascade's scenic foothills, Klamath County is an outdoor adventure paradise. No matter the time of year, there's always a new adventure awaiting outdoor enthusiasts of all skill levels.

Soar among the trees on the Crater Lake Zipline that offers dramatic views of Upper Klamath Lake, Cascade peaks, and the rim of Crater Lake. With 9 zips, 2 ski bridges, and 2 rappels, you can't go wrong. And for the young ones, the Sasquatch Hollow challenge course features 4 zips and a variety of thrilling attractions.

Experience the rich variety of natural beauty from the seat of a bike along the rail turned trail OC&E Woods Line State Trail. An easy 14 miles paved in Klamath Falls, or add miles on gravel from Olene out. You can rent bikes from Zach's Bikes on Main Street in Klamath Falls.

Klamath is also host to canoeing and kayaking opportunities. The best introduction to the region is to paddling the calm waters along the 9.5 miles Upper Klamath Canoe Trail located on the marshes of the Upper Klamath National Wildlife Refuge. You'll find solitude while you view birds, fish, otters and stunning views in all directions. Rent from Rocky Point Resort, Real Oregon Experience, or Sky Lakes Wilderness Adventures.

Klamath County boasts one of the nation's top birding hotspots where bird diversity and abundance captivate you in a year-round spectacle. Located on the Pacific Flyway and home to 6 National Wildlife Refuges, Klamath County is a birder's paradise. Check out the Lower Klamath and Tulelake National Wildlife Refuges.

The Running Y Ranch Resort features the only Arnold Palmer Signature Golf Course in Oregon. Witness the awe-inspiring beauty of what has become one of the most renowned members of Palmer's "Sweet 16." For the whole family, take advantage of the 18-hole mini-golf putting course sporting water hazards, sand traps and sneaky breaks.

Sasquatch Hollow

Upper Klamath Canoe Trail

Arnold Palmer

OC&E Woods Line State Trail

DISCOVER Klamath

discoverklamath.com

It's time to meet me in Klamath.
Seriously. Right now.