KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Dana Platin, MPH

Executive Coach | Leadership Strategist | Keynote Facilitator
Top Secret Clearance | SESCDP Graduate | ICF-Aligned Coach

Dana Platin is a bilingual executive coach, keynote facilitator, and transformational leader with over 25 years of experience driving change across federal and state government, international development, and nonprofit sectors. Dana served as the Regional Administrator for USDA's Mountain Plains Region and oversaw a $6.4 billion portfolio, guiding public assistance programs, including SNAP and nutrition services to achieve equitable, efficient, and impactful results.

As keynote facilitator for the R3 Leadership Experience™, Dana empowers leaders to RESET past challenges, RISE with clarity and purpose, and REALIZE bold futures grounded in equity, strategy, and service excellence. She has coached a diverse spectrum of leaders globally, from emerging talent to senior executives, to navigate complexity with resilience and confidence, cultivate coaching cultures, and lead mission-driven teams.

Dana co-founded REINAS Leadership Coaching and launched The WARMI Project to advance inclusive, values-driven leadership and amplify women's leadership potential. Fluent in Spanish with 17+ years of international experience, her culturally adaptive approach supports diverse teams serving vulnerable populations. Her facilitation style blends evidence-based strategy with authentic presence, energizing audiences and leaders to confidently lead through uncertainty and transformation.

FOUNDER & SPEAKER

Stephanie Jenewein, MG

Founder, Buffalo Storm Consulting LLC | Creator of R3 Leadership Experience™ | Former State SNAP Director & Policy Bureau Chief
Former Management Analyst USDA FNS SNAP

Stephanie Jenewein is a nationally recognized leader in public assistance administration and the creator of the R3 Leadership Experience™ —a first-of-its-kind leadership journey designed specifically for professionals in SNAP, TANF, Medicaid, and other human service programs.

As the founder of Buffalo Storm Consulting LLC, and with nearly a decade of experience in both state and federal government, Stephanie brings a practical, grounded approach to leadership development — blending strategy, compassion, and deep knowledge of the systemic challenges human service leaders face today. She helps leaders reconnect with their core mission and lead with clarity.

Stephanie is known for her engaging speaking style, her ability to simplify complexity, and her commitment to helping leaders create real, lasting change in their programs and communities.
