Message from Kellé

Hey there,

Spring is almost here, and can I say I am so looking forward to warmer days! Not the scorching hot and humid ones we get here in the DC area, but the 2 weeks of Spring! Can you sense the sarcasm??? The beautiful flowers and longer mild sunny days make Spring (tied up with Fall) my favorite season! But here we usually only have a few weeks of the nice 70-degree days before, BOOM...humidity, high 80s and 90s here I am!

Well nevertheless, as the weather begins to warm up for most of us in the United States, I wanted to take some time to ask you...when was the last time you went outside, with no music or agenda, just walked/jogged/ran (whatever you fancy), and listened to nature?

If it's been more than a week or even worse, you can't remember, plan that into your schedule this week! AND while you plan that in, consider all the reasons why you haven't done it. If any of those excuses are because of work, begin to think about ways you can change that. Maybe you need to make better use of your workday or, maybe you're stretched way too thin and need to outsource or strategize how to be more efficient??

No matter what the reason is, I would be honored to serve you! Contact me today so I can help you strategize and hold you accountable!

Stay healthy! Stay well! Have joy!

Recent Reviews

Tiffany Rubin Johnson -- 5 Stars -- I literally had 5 CPA consultations before my consultation with Kellé. Kellé provided a personal touch that was unmatched by another other finance professional I met prior. She was very patient in addressing the many questions, concerns and "financial stuff" in my head, as both a tech startup founder and a real estate investor. I slept so much better, and my financial anxiety is much lower. I finally have an actionable plan and a solid way forward now. I am so thankful that God sent me her way. Highly recommended.
