

WHOLESALE PURCHASE GUIDE

ABOUT US – REAL INGREDIENTS. REAL LOVE. REAL GOOD.

At our company, we believe that food should do more than just fill you up—it should nourish your body, warm your heart, and maybe even make you giggle a little. That’s why we make fresh juices and old-school cookies just like Mama used to make—except we leave out all the preservatives, chemicals, and things you can’t pronounce.

Our story starts in a small kitchen with a big heart. The original cookie recipes come from a beloved teacher who taught in the Chicago Public School system for 46 years. That’s right—46 years of chalk dust, spelling tests, and making sure you didn’t run in the hallway. When she wasn’t shaping young minds, she was baking cookies that could turn the worst day into the best one.

Fast forward to her daughter—an unstoppable woman with 21 (yes, 21!) food allergies. Her body said “no thank you” to fake ingredients, so she decided to say “no more” to preservatives, additives, and all that factory fluff. She wanted real food—like the kind her mama used to make—but made safe, clean, and delicious for everyone. From our kitchen to your hands, we bring you juices squeezed from sun-ripened fruits and teas brewed with love, plus cookies that will make you say, “Wait... these don’t have preservatives?!” (Nope. Not even a little.)

Our food is for everyone—every culture, every income, every allergy label. Because good food shouldn’t be a luxury, and taste shouldn’t come at the cost of your health.

We’re not fancy. We’re just real. Real juice. Real cookies. Real people. Real Food.

And a whole lotta love in every bite and sip. Because when you eat what’s real, you feel what’s real.
