

AVA Energy Acquires People with Energy

AVA Energy Limited, a leading independent Energy recruitment and staffing solutions provider has acquired People with Energy Recruitment Group Ltd (PWE).

PWE was founded in 1983 in East Anglia initially to serve the offshore Oil & Gas and Marine sectors. Over the past fourteen years the business has established extensive expertise in the Energy & Utilities industries with significant growth through supporting clients in the Nuclear and Renewable Energy sectors, building strong and lasting relationships.

The team at PWE has, collectively, more than 120 years of recruitment experience within the Energy, Industrial and Manufacturing sectors delivering Contract and Permanent recruitment solutions for blue- and white-collar roles, for both onshore and on offshore platforms and vessels.

Under the excellent leadership of MD Stuart Smith, and Director Richard Jeffery, PWE has grown to sales of £10m. The PWE team are proud to have provided exceptional customer service to their clients for over forty years.

This strategic acquisition brings together two complementary businesses that are positioned for growth. The services and geographic locations of AVA and PWE can further support key clients of both brands. Together, AVA and PWE are poised to provide an innovative full client solution. AVA PWE are ensured of their goal to be the market leading Energy solutions provider, a Top 5 independent global Energy recruitment business.

Jordan Rosenfeld, MD of AVA said,

“PWE have built a highly successful energy recruitment contract business, establishing themselves as a trusted partner in the sector, particularly in East Anglia - a key geography for the UK Energy sector. This strategic acquisition marks an important milestone in AVA Energy’s growth. By bringing together PWE’s proven expertise with our own capabilities, we’re strengthening the combined business’s ability to deliver exceptional service to our clients and expanding the value we bring to the energy industry.

The PWE team have created a fantastic platform, and we’re excited about the opportunities ahead and the enhanced solutions this partnership will unlock.”

Stuart Smith, MD of PWE said,

“We’re proud of what the PWE team has achieved and excited about the opportunities this collaboration brings. Together with AVA Energy, we’ll continue to deliver exceptional service while expanding the solutions and support available to our clients across East Anglia and beyond.”
