Organization Meeting

Following the Pledge of Allegiance, Apollo Borough council meeting was called to order by Mayor Karen Kenzevich at 7 p.m. in the Soldiers & Sailors Hall, 631 N 2nd Street, Apollo, PA 15613.

Swearing in of newly elected and re-elected officials was done prior to the meeting.

Council members Jennifer Mullins, Craig Williams, Diane Bradshaw, Cindy O'block, Cindee Virostek and Jerrod Thompson were present. The mayor and secretary/treasurer were present.

Mayor Kenzevich opened nominations for Council President. Cindee Virostek nominated Diane Bradshaw and Craig Williams nominated Jerrod Thompson. Each candidate received 3 votes resulting in a tie. Mayor Kenzevich was requested to break the tie and voted for Jerrod Thompson to be President.

Council President, Jerrod Thompson, proceeded with the meeting opening nominations for Vice President. Diane Bradshaw nominated Cindee Virostek and Craig Williams nominated Jennifer Mullins. Each candidate received 3 votes resulting in a tie. Mayor Kenzevich was requested to break the tie and voted for Cindee Virostek to be Vice President.

Cindee Virostek announced she will be taking the 4 year seat on council and letters of interest would be needed to fill the open 2 year seat.

Council tabled appointments and vacancies to the next council meeting.

Council was given copies of letters of interest that were already submitted to the secretary-treasurer for review.

A motion was made by Jennifer Mullins and seconded by Cindee Virostek to adjourn the meeting.
