

Ohio Deferred Compensation (Ohio DC) has partnered with Enrich to provide our participants access to free, robust financial wellness resources. We want to encourage participants to explore their access to this platform. With this set of tools, we hope to remove financial roadblocks that can get in the way of achieving your dreams, by providing fun and easy-to-use resources to improve personal financial skills.

Enrich is a one-stop destination for all personal finance questions from budgeting, banking insurance, investing, debt management, and more! When it comes to money, everyone has different strengths, weaknesses, and goals. Ohio DC’s partnership with Enrich can help build a personalized plan, with recommendations for tools, videos, and mini-courses most relevant to you.

In order to take advantage of these resources, an employee must be enrolled with Ohio DC and have an online account established. If employees are interested in taking advantage of these resources but are not yet enrolled with Ohio DC, directions for becoming a new participant are included in the graphic below.
