Notes for KASPAR ZWICKY:

Reverend and Dean of Mollis, living in the "Dekenenhau" (House of Deans). Studied Theology in Basel. Author of a chronicle of the family Zwicky. As a member of the aristocratic level he was a convinced enemy of the French Revolution. 1800 he initiated a new school in Mollis. He was the president of the society of Bible of Glarus. 1826 he was the leader of the relief organization for the Greeks (fight against the Turks)...Thanks to his knowledge in French language he could mediate between the officers of Napoleon and the people of Mollis.

A part of his great correspondence is well preserved, for example 20 of his love-letters from 1776/78. The greatest part of old letters is in the "Zentralbibliothek" in Zurich. In this house are more than 100,000 old folio-volumes from the Middle Ages and the modern times and in the "Staatsarchiv" in Zurich is the eldest Zwicky-letter from 1624. The Zwicky reverends in Mollis have corresponded with other clergymen in Zurich, therefore the letters have landed in the Zentralbibliothek.

In an old accounts book (about 1720 - 1750) of the family Zwicky shows that all Zwicky reverends were bankers at the same time and have lent the money to the people.

Notes for KASPAR JOHAN DR. ZWICKY:

Dr. Kaspar Zwicky was a Lieutenant and Doctor in the Swiss Army and was considerably older than his wife. They were well to do and lived well, but the doctor got to associating with people that were to "fast" for him and when he suddenly had pneumonia and died, his affairs were in bad shape. They had to sell the farm to pay the debts. He was a lover of horses and spent a great deal of money on race horses. Dr. Zwicky schooling consisted of Private Lessons in Mollis - grammar school in Aarau - Teacher-training in Hofwyl - Studied medicine in Zurich and Tubingen Germany 1812 - 1818.

As a student he was in love with life. His mother wrote him at this time: "You often have the opportunity to take part in dance, it will be rather cost-intensive if it will happen to often. I'm worried about to fence not necessary. I hope that you use the valuable time with great care in order to increase your science and to become capable".

Dr. Zwicky's Great Great Grandfather was a pastor of a church in Mollis, Switzerland. He served for 40 years. He was a wealthy man and did not take any pay for his services. He died in 1734.

Mollis Switzerland is located near the Zurich Lake in the northeastern part of Switzerland only a few miles from Zurich, Chief occupation is factory work or working their fruit farms.

Three other children were stillborn: Daughter - 01-26-1832, Son 06-12-1836, and another son on 12-27- 1846.

Kaspar had a sister who married a Streiff in Switzerland.

Emerentia Zwicky born 1790 in Switzerland, died in 1859, married Conrad Streiff 1816. Conrad born 1794 died 1825. They had a son named Conrad Sreiff born 1825, died 1909, married a Barbara Kubli in 1848, born in 1828, died 1916. They had a son named Caspar Conrad Streiff, born 1852, died 1933, married Rosa Streiff in 1880. Rosa born 1859. In the letters that I have it states that Rosa Streiff who married Caspar Conrad Streiff, were no relation. Just same last names.

Rosa and Caspar had five children - Rosa Streiff born 1884, Hanna Streiff born 1887, Anna Margaretha born 1881, Conrad Fritz born 1896 and Betty born 1888.

My Aunt Chrys Mikkelson stayed with Rosa Streiff and Betty on her visits to Mollis, Switzerland, in 1951 and in 1970.

Notes for KASPAR JOHAN ZWICKY, SR.:

Studied engineering at the University of Luzanne. While there he had scarlet fever and became almost totally deaf for life. When his father died and left the family in bad shape, Kaspar had to quit school, so he decided to come to America. He arrived in 1845, his mother was to join him, but she died shortly after. He came to Oshkosh in 1845 where he lived for a couple of years working at anything he could find. After marrying Anna, he became the founder of a Swiss colony known as Scandinavia, Wisconsin, that was in 1851. He claimed 200 acres and built a small house. When the county surveyed in 1853 they found that his house stood on four sections: 3,4,9,10. He helped other families come over, the Benzels, Wipfs, Leutholds and the Weinmanns. They figure that he had received money from his father to be able to buy all the land that he acquired. He as assessed at over $545.00 in 1858. The 1856 tax records show he owned as least five forties of land also a quarter section of land along the creek and the north half of the town. Kaspar took active interest in politics on the town level for many years.

In 1864 Anna died... married his second wife Gunhilda Christensen Thoe in 1865.

He was elected a 1st lieutenant in a militia company organized in Scandinavia December 23, 1858. First election in 1854 was elected town treasurer.

Obituary: Waupaca County Post - Thursday, December 15, 1887

SUDDEN DEATH.

Last Saturday, Casper Zwicky and one of his sons, of Scandinavia, started for this city with a load of hogs. When about half way here he was taken with a sharp pain in the chest, which kept getting worse until he got in town; when he went to the residence of his daughter, Mr. H. B.B. Poppe; and laid down; and kept sinking so fast that Drs. Pelton and Manchester were sent for but before they arrived he was dead. Mr. Zwicky was 63 years of age, and was one of the first settlers of Scandinavia, moving to that town thirty-five years ago. He was an upright, Christian man and was highly respected by all who knew him. He leaves six children to mourn his sudden death; Mrs. Dr. Sether of Iola, Mrs. H. B. B. Poppe of this city, and two daughters and two sons living at home. The funeral was held on Tuesday, at Scandinavia and was attended by a large number of friends of the deceased.

Notes for ANNA DORTHEA KAROLINE INGWERSON:

Born June 13, 1830 in Bretstadt Schlesvig Holstein, Europe. Died December 10, 1864 in Scandinavia, Wisconsin. Met and married Caspar Zwicky in Oshkosh or Winchester. At the time they were married the young couple realized all the new lands opening up for sale along the watershed of the Wolf River, which was part of the Menominee Indian land under the treaty of 1848. Anna heard later through her Norwegian connections about the people coming to take up land in Waupaca County. In 1852 she must have convinced her husband to join in the movement as they moved and Caspar became the founder of a Swiss Colony in Wisconsin. Built the first house of field stone, while building it they lived in a shanty which stood on the west bank of Scandinavia creek. Caspar Jr. was born there. In the Mikkelson notes Anna's name is listed as Ingverson. On the passenger ship list Anna is listed as Ingverden.

He married ANNE JOHANDATTER INDLAEGGINGEN GUNDERSON October 05, 1876 in Church of Scandinavia, daughter of JOHAN GUNDERSEN and ELI PEDERSDATTER. She was born May 28, 1856 in Gausdal, Norway, and died December 10, 1942 in Scandinavia, Wisconsin.

Notes for CASPAR CONRAD ZWICKY, JR.:

Caspar Zwicky, Jr. was the first white boy born in Waupaca county and the first boy to be baptized in the township of Scandinavia. One day while he was playing near the house, some Indians came and took him with them. They did not hurt him but seemed proud of the fact that he would go with them. They wanted to show him to the other Indian families. In the evening they brought him home with a large piece of meat. As soon as he was old enough he purchased a farm of his own. Later he married Anne Gunderson. Was of the Lutheran faith.

Witnesses at the wedding ceremony: J. C. Zwicky and Johan Gundersen

Minister: J. C. A. Museus of Scandinavia, Wisconsin

Marriage Certificate: Volume 2, page 412.

When Caspar Jr. came to America, he had in his possession a spoon with the 1752 Zwicky Coat of Arms. The Coat of Arms was granted to the ZWICKY family of Mollis, Switzerland, under the governing rules regulating the design of armorial bearings in European countries in the age of heraldry. There may be older ones, as the Zwicky family dates back to the twelfth century as residents of Mollis, but the ones I have in my possession are dated 1618 issued to Fridolin Zwicky, 1663 to Fridolin Zwicky, 1699 to John Heinrich Zwicky and 1752 with no name recorded. That is the one that Caspar, Jr. had with him.

The 1880 Census for the Town of Scandinavia showed the following:

Zwickey, Caspar Jr.	White Male	30

OBITUARY OF CASPAR C ZWICKY:

With the passing of Casper Conrad Zwicky, Waupaca county loses one of its most valued citizens.

The sudden death of Mrs. Zwicky, March 28, 1906, came as a shock to his family and to his very wide circle of friends. Death was caused by heart failure, and was not preceded by illness. A few days before death Mr. Zwicky was a well man, apparently enjoying the best of health. Later he complained of feeling a pain in the region of his heart. Nether he nor his family thought the matter serious. A few hours before death came Mr. Zwicky spoke of the pain becoming more intense, and messengers were dispatched for medical assistance. The physician did not consider his condition critical at that time, but in less than an hour later he had passed away.

Deceased was fifty four years of age, and was the first white baby born in Waupaca County. He was the son of Caspar J. Zwicky, who was a pioneer settler of Waupaca county, and who also died of heart failure in almost the same manner.

The elder Mr. Zwicky had gone to the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. B. B. Poppe, who at that time resided in Waupaca. Death came while he was visiting. This occurred some nineteen years ago, and in the same house now occupied by J. L. Sturtevant, editor of the Waupaca Post.

Mrs. Chr. Sether, for many years a resident of this city is also a sister of the deceased, Casper C. Zwicky. A wife and nine children, most of whom are grown, survive to mourn his loss.

Mr. Zwicky for more than nineteen years was a member of the school board in his town, having succeeded his father, who served in the same capacity from the organization of the board to the time of his death. The deceased was also a stockholder and one of the directors of the Bank of Scandinavia.

He will be greatly missed in the community where he took an active part in everything that was for the upbuilding and betterment of man and existing conditions.

On account of his kindly nature and companionable ways he made many friends where ever he went, and it is safe to say that he never had an enemy.

The high esteem in which he was held was well attested by the very large attendance at the obsequies.

The funeral was the largest of any ever held in the old church at Scandinavia, of which church he was a member all his life.

The Bank of Scandinavia, and the public school, both of which he served so long and faithfully, closed the day of the funeral.

Notes for ANNE JOHANDATTER INDLAEGGINGEN GUNDERSON:

Anne immigrated to America with her family in April 1857, at the age of 9 months, on the ship DE TRE BRODRE sailing from Christania (Oslo) Norway, arriving in Quebec, Canada in June 1857. The family originally settled in Pine Lake Settlement near the present day city of Milwaukee, but they eventually moved to Scandinavia Township where Johan settled on a 120 acre farm in the northeast corner of the township at what is now Myklebust Lake just south of the town of Iola, Wisconsin. In America, Anne dropped her patronymic name of Johansdatter and assumed her father's new American surname of Gunderson. She traveled to America with her parents, Johan Gundersen and Eli Pedersdatter (Waalén) and her siblings, Gunder Johansen, Elias Johansen, Mathia Johansdatter and Pauline Johansdatter. Anne's older brothers had been confirmed by the Lutheran Church before immigrating thus they carried their own immigration certificates. When they checked in with American customs agents they kept their patronymic names in America, but Americanized them to Johnson. The young girls all assumed their father's new American surname of Gunderson (from his patronymic name). The family came from a small cottager farm (Tennant farm) in East Gausdal named Inlaeggingen which is part of the larger Reistad farm (also spelled Restad). East Gausdal is located about 25 miles northwest of the town of Lillihammer near the Gubrandsdalen Valley.

Notes for DR. CHRISTIAN SETHER, DR.:

Obituary - Waupaca County Post

Thursday, April 14, 1892

Dr. Christian Sether died at his home in this city on Friday, April 8, 1892. Dr. Sether was born in Scandinavia, April 22, 1855. His was truly an eventful and busy life. At Sixteen he commenced the study of medicine with Dr. A. H. Guernsey at Amherst, and graduated with honors at Rush Medical College, Chicago at the age of Twenty-three. He at once commenced to practice medicine at Northwood, Iola, where he had remarkable success for three years. But finding the winter climate too rigorous he resolved to change his field of labor, not, however until he took another course of study at Bellevue Hospital, New York, where he evinced marked ability in surgery, and again graduated. He then located in Stoughton, WI., where he practiced for four years establishing there an enviable reputation as a skillful surgeon and practitioner. At the end of the four years, however, he felt that his physical powers were yielding to his ambitions, and he was again compelled to leave a lucrative practice, fearing an entire breakdown. Removing to Scandinavia he started for Vienna, Austria, with the hope of finding relief there from his ailments, and possibly still further competing his studies. At Philadelphia he stopped to consult the late famous Dr. D. H. Agnew, who advised him not to undertake the journey, as he would never survive. He returned and since that time has made his home in Waupaca, where he has given his time mostly to handling real estate. In June of 1880 is married Miss Anna Zwicky, also of Scandinavia. Two boys were born to them and are left to share the deep grief of the bereft mother.

Service at the church, Rev. Perry conducting the service. Burial at the Scandinavia cemetery.

Obituary:

Impressive and very largely attended funeral services were conducted at the Crow River Lutheran church last Friday afternoon for Mrs. Martin A. Mikkelson, of Minneapolis, who died suddenly following an operation. Rev. Edw. Struxness, pastor of the church, officiated and delivered the funeral sermon in the English language, while Rev. H. O. Svare of Minneapolis spoke in the Norwegian language. Rev. A. H. Hoyme of Brooten brought personal greetings from the Zion congregation.

A profusion of floral offerings testified to the esteem in which the departed was held by her many friends in this community where she had resided for many years. Mrs. Alfred Romness sang "Face to Face". and Miss Cora Thorson sang "Abide with Me" as part of the services.

Mrs. Mikkelson was born at Scandinavia, Wis. on March 8, 1880. On July 10, 1903 she was united in marriage to Martin A. Mikkelson and the young couple came to Belgrade, where Mr. Mikkelson entered the mercantile business. Four Children were born to them, of which three survive: Monroe, Bernice, and Chrysanthy.

Besides her sorrowing husband and children, Mrs. Mikkelson is survived by her mother, Mrs. Anna Zwicky of Iola, Wis; three brothers and five sisters.

Mrs. Mikkelson was a splendid Christian mother and her early death saddened the many friends of the family here, who realize what grief her loss has brought to the bereaved father and children.

Buried on family plot at Crow River Church cemetery in Kandiyohi County, Minnesota.

Notes for MARTIN ADOLPH MIKKELSON:

Martin was born in Minnesota opened a general store in Belgrade the M. A. MIKKELSON MERCANTILE STORE. After 21 years in the business sold because of poor health. I believe that was 1926. According to a news article Martin left for Minneapolis and from there left for the coast where he has purchased a 10 acre chicken farm in Rio Linda, California, Mrs. Mikkelson and children will follow at the end of the school year. Josephine became ill in Minneapolis, and passed away in 1930 so as far as the records go I do not believe they ever made it to California. Martin died of heart disease in 1932.

Obituary for MARTIN MIKKELSON

Martin A. Mikkelson, for over 20 years a popular and highly respected merchant in Belgrade, passed away Saturday, Febr. 6 at the General hospital, Minneapolis where he had been for nearly three weeks. Death came suddenly from heart disease. Mr. Mikkelson was 55 years of age last August.

Funeral services were conducted at the Crow River Lutheran Church Wednesday afternoon and the church was filled with old friends and neighbors who had come to pay their last respects to the deceased. Beautiful floral offerings covered the casket.

Rev. Edward Struxness, pastor of the church, delivered the funeral sermon, speaking in both the English and Norse languages. Rev. H. E. Baalson of Sunburg was also present and spoke briefly. Vernon R. Green of Minneapolis sang the beautiful hymn, "Face to Face".

The pall-bearers were: Fred Mickelson, M. J. Mikkelson, Alfred Romness, Elmer Evans, C. K. Olson and Tollef Odland.

Interment was made in the Crow River cemetery, beside the beloved wife of the deceased.

Among those from distance who attended the funeral services were: Mr. & Mrs. Ted Lunde, Mrs. Bruce Elshire and Mrs. A. L. Nelson of Willmar; Rev. H. E. Baalson, P. A. Gandrud and Henry and Ole Severeide of Sunburg and Lawrence and Miss Edith Mickelson, Vernon Green and Warren Gray of Minneapolis.

Martin A. Mikkelson was born in the Warner community, southwest of Belgrade, on August 9, 1876 and was the son of Mikkel and Julia Olson. He was baptized in the Crow River church on September 10, 1876 and confirmed there on May 31, 1891.

After growing to young manhood Mr. Mikkelson secured employment with the late T. J. Anderson in the latter's store at Superior, Wi. After some time there, however, he contracted typhoid fever and was severely ill for a long time. On his return to Belgrade he was employed in Mr. Anderson's store here.

At Belgrade Mr. Mikkelson became acquainted with Miss Josephine Zwicky of Scandinavia, Wis. and on July 10, 1903 they were united in marriage.

Mr and Mrs Mikkelson began their happy wedded life in Belgrade, and Mr. Mikkelson opened a modest grocery department in the old Palmer hotel. The business prospered and soon Mr. Mikkelson moved to larger quarters where the State Bank of Belgrade building now stands and his store became one of the leading business places of the village. He later purchased the building now occupied by J. O. Quisberg and continued in business for many years.

Mr and Mrs Mikkelson were blessed with four children, of whom three survive their beloved father: Bernice, Crysanthy and Monroe.

In 1926 the family moved to Minneapolis and there Mrs. Mikkelson passed away on October 6, 1930.

Mr. Mikkelson is survived by two brothers and two sisters: Lewis of Belgrade, Marcus of Sunburg, Mrs. Carl Gulsvig (Ingeborg Evaline) of Sunburg and Miss Mable Mikkelson of Willmar.

During his long business career in Belgrade, Mr. Mikkelson was high respected for his integrity and business ability. Although suffering from much illness, he was withal blessed with a cheerful disposition and a ready smile which endeared him to his many friends.

The residents of the Belgrade and Warner communities were shocked and saddened to hear of the death of their friend and former neighbor and extend sincere sympathy to the bereaved children, brothers and sisters.

Obituary Waupaca County Post November 1937

SUDDEN DEATH OF A. W. ZWICKY IS SHOCK HERE

Popular Civic Figure Dies suddenly of Heart Attack.

The sudden death of Alfred Zwicky Friday afternoon was an unusual shock to this entire community, especially to the younger and middle-aged men to whom death seems far off and vastly distant from the business of everyday living.

Death seemed far off, too, to Al Zwicky, who had attended his work at the Wisconsin Public Service Co. office regularly, who was alert and active until a sudden heart attack brought his death.

Interested in community affairs, a favorite of the youngsters in the national guard company who idolized him, a man who had as many friends in this town as anyone and not one enemy. Alfred Zwicky was one of those fine substantial characters who gave a town its strength. In all his relations, as soldier, businessman, civic figure, dad and husband, Al was 100 percent.

Alfred W. Zwicky, Born January 2, 1892, near Scandinavia, a son of the late Casper Zwicky and Anna Zwicky, died very suddenly at his home in Waupaca Friday, November 5, at the age of 45 years, 10 months and three days. Mr. Zwicky held several clerical positions before he entered the U. S. Army June 12, 1917. He was assigned to Co. C, 4th Wis. Infantry; promoted to Corporal July 17, 1937 and served overseas in the World War from Febr. 7, 1918 to July 10, 1919. He participated in five major offensives; Aisne-Marne; Chateau-Thierry; Oise-Alane; Soissons and Alsace Defensive Sector; also served with the army of occupation from Nov. 11, 1918 to July 10, 1919 being stationed at Coblenz, Bridgehead. His military career was not ended with the last service, however, for in 1926 the deceased entered the National Guard, was commissioned as 2nd Lieutenant in Howitzer Co., April 25, 1929, and was promoted to 1st Lieutenant, in April 1932, a rank which he held at the time of his sudden demise. He had been employed by the Wis. Public Service Corp. since December 1, 1920.

Nov. 12, 1921, Alfred Zwicky was united in marriage to Leah Mae Churchill of Marion, and to them were born two children, Douglas age 14 and Mary Ann, 3, who with their mother are left to mourn the untimely loss of a kind father and husband. Other survivors are the aged mother, Mrs. Anna Zwicky, Iola, two brothers, John of Scandinavia and Clarence of Iola, five sisters, Ella- Mrs. Otto Gurholt and Belma-Mrs. Martin Anderson of Scandinavia; Agnes-Mrs. A. W. Draland, Wis. Rapids; Alma-Mrs. Vincent Taylor, Oakland, Calif; Ruth-Mrs. James L. McGinnis of Amery. A sister Josephine - Mrs. Mikkelson died several years ago. Mr. Zwicky was a member of Waupaca F & A M #123, as well as Howitzer Co. of National Guards and at the funeral services held in Holly Funeral Home Monday he as accorded full military honors as well as the fraternal service. Rev. H. A. Misdall officiated and two familiar hymns "The Rugged Old Cross" and "God will Take care of You" were sung by Miss Louise Sill, Mrs. Clifford Johnson, Reuben Danielsen and C. H. Solie. Pallbearers were W. J. Roach, Clifford Johnson, Paul Williams, W. C. Rasmussen, Harry Rawson and R. E. High. Interment was at the Scandinavia Lutheran Cemetery.
