THE AMERICAN LEGION
CONSTITUTION OF
PAUL E. BOLDING POST NO. 7, INC.
DEPARTMENT OF GEORGIA

PREAMBLE

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred percent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our association in all wars; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; To combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and goodwill on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.

ARTICLE 1 – NAME

The name of this organization will be Paul E. Bolding POST NO. 7, Inc., THE AMERICAN LEGION, DEPARTMENT OF GEORGIA.

ARTICLE II – OBJECTS

The objectives and purposes of this Post will be to promote the principles and policies set forth in the foregoing Preamble, and the National and Departmental Constitutions of The American Legion.

ARTICLE III – NATURE

Section 1. This Post is a civilian organization and membership therein does not affect or increase liability for the military or police service.

Section 2. This organization will be absolutely non-political and will not be used for the dissemination of partisan principles nor for the promotion of candidacy of any person seeking public office or preferment.

Section 3. Rank does not exist in The American Legion; no member will be addressed by their military or naval title in any meeting of this Post.

SECTION IV – MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Eligibility to membership in this Post will be as prescribed by the National Constitution of The American Legion.

Section 2. Applications for membership will be made in writing under such regulations as may from time to time be prescribed by the Post Executive Committee.

Section 3. All applications for membership will be acted upon at the next Post meeting following the making of such application, and will, at such meeting, be accepted, rejected, or referred for further investigation and consideration. If a majority of the members present cast their vote against the acceptance of said application, then such application will be recorded as rejected.

Section 4. Any member of this Post may be expelled for Cause by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present at the regular meeting of the Post after charges are preferred under oath in writing, and a fair trial had upon the same in accordance with procedure prescribed by National and adopted by the Department Executive Committee.

Section 5. A member who has been expelled or suspended from this Post for any cause may be reinstated to membership by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the membership present in a Post meeting, and the payment of current dues for the year in which the reinstatement occurs.

Section 6. No person who has been expelled by a Post will be admitted to membership in this Post, without the consent of the expelling Post, except that where such consent has been asked for and denied by such Post, the person may then appeal to the Executive Committee of the expelling Post for permission to apply for membership in this Post, and will be ineligible for membership until such permission is granted.

ARTICLE V – OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES

Section 1. The administrative affairs of this Post of The American Legion will, except as may be otherwise provided by the By-Laws, be under the supervision of an Executive Committee which will consist of six (6) members in addition to the elected officers of the Post. The term of office of members of the Executive Committee will be for one (1) year. This Post, by its By-Laws, may provide for such standing committees as the business of the organization may require.

Section 2. The officers of this Post will consist of a Commander, a Senior Vice-Commander, four (4) Junior Vice-Commanders, a Chaplain, a Historian, a Finance Officer, a Service Officer, and Sgt. At Arms, which will be nominated from the floor at the meeting preceding the annual election. An Adjutant, a Judge Advocate and other officers will be appointed by the Commander and approved by the Executive Committee.

Section 3. All officers and Executive Committee members will be elected annually, and they will hold office until their successors are duly installed or as otherwise provided. Any officer or Executive Committee member may be removed for inefficiency by the Executive Committee, a two-thirds (2/3) vote of said committee being necessary to affect such removal.

Section 4. Every member of this Post in good standing will be eligible to hold office in this Post.

Section 5. The duties of officers and the Executive Committee members will be those usually pertaining to such officers of committee members as further provided in the By-Laws.

ARTICLE VI – FINANCE

Section 1. The revenue of this Post will be derived from the membership or initiation fees, from annual membership dues and from such sources as may be recommended by the Post Executive Committee.

Section 2. The amount of such membership or initiation fees and the amount of such annual Post dues will be fixed and determined by this Post, for the ensuing year.

Section 3. The Post will pay to the Department of Georgia Headquarters the National and Departmental annual per capita dues for each membership transmitted to the Department.

ARTICLE VII – CHARTER MEMBERS

Members who joined this Post prior to the issuance of the charter will be known as charter members.

(NOTE: The matter of charter members for the permanent charter is left to the decision of the Post members.)

ARTICLE VIII – AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

Section 1. This Post recognizes an auxiliary organization to be known as Auxiliary Unit of Post No. 7, Inc., The American Legion, Department of Georgia.

Section 2. Membership in the Auxiliary will be as prescribed by the National Constitution of the American Legion Auxiliary.

ARTICLE IX – AMENDMENTS

Section 1. This Constitution is adopted subject to the provisions of the National Constitution of The American Legion and the Constitution of the Department of Georgia, The American Legion. Any amendments to said National Constitution or Department Constitution which is in conflict with any provisions hereof will be regarded as automatically repealing or modifying the provisions of this Constitution to the extent of such conflict.

Section 2. This Constitution may be amended at any regular meeting by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the members of said Post attending and regular Post meeting, providing that the proposed amendment will have been submitted in writing and read at the next preceding regular meeting of said Post meeting, and providing, further, that written notice will have been given to all members at least ten (10) days in advance of the date when such amendment is to be voted upon, notifying said members that at such meeting a proposal to amend the Constitution is to be voted upon.
