FROM THE EAST

Worshipful Bryon P. Howe PM

Brethren,

Fraternal Greetings Brethren. First off, I want to again extend my utmost appreciation and gratitude to each of you for electing me as your Worshipful Master for the ensuing year. I am extremely humbled and honored to have been given such an amazing opportunity to serve you. From me, my wife, family and friends, thank you to all who attended the installation. You made the night special.

This is my first article from the Oriental Chair. I want to make Phoenicia Lodge a better place to be associated with; a better place for its Brothers and families to spend time (attending meetings and special events); and, a better Community asset; and, I want to try to showcase these achievements in our TrestleBoard, Facebook and Website posting that will be the best one published by any Arizona Lodge.

Some activities that may be of interest for us to consider:

- First Responders Appreciation
- Teacher Appreciation – Grant Program, BBQ
- Adopt A School Program – Campo Bello and possibly another
- Bears on Patrol (Lodge furnishes stuffed animals to police officers to provide to children who are involved in traumatic events--wrecks, fires, domestic quarrels, etc.)
- Christmas Miracle Program (providing Christmas gifts to needy families in the local Community)
- Rider of the 3rd Degree toy ride(s) – Phoenix and Tucson
- A "Masonic Minute" in each stated meeting (a "mini" Masonic Education item)

This year's goal will be fundraising to help us do these activities. We have the on-going skateboard sales and ROJO activities, the George Washington rye whiskey raffle, Ted Yost Firearm auction, and more to come. If anyone wants to help market our lodge, please speak up. No naysayers please, we already have enough of that. I am creating a new website with just the GoDaddy tools we already pay for, and once done, will change the billing to reflect this. Facebook is going through some changes, in particular, the way our postings show up on newsfeeds. It sounds silly, but please like and share ALL postings by our lodge, it helps us grow our 'number' with the Facebook analytics. And, I am registering us (hopefully) as a Charity Organization so we can run fundraisers to get donations for specific activities.

Looking forward to next year, we have traveling to do, ritual to practice, activities to plan, meetings to attend, and most of all Brothers to be made.

Don't waste your time looking back, you're not going that way.

Sincerely and Fraternaly,

Bryon Howe, PM

FROM THE WEST

Brother Christopher B. West - Sr. Warden
Brethren,

It's official; West is in the West. Thanks to each of you for entrusting me with a move up the line to the Station of the Senior Warden. A BIG congratulations to our newly installed Worshipful Master, Bryon Howe, on his well-deserved move to the East. WB Howe will surely continue on the strong Lodge leadership we've been blessed to have over the years. Another congrats to Brother Brassard for his move into a pedestal as Junior Warden! The Lodge is in excellent hands this year and looking forward. Finally, one last GREAT BIG 'thank you' to our now "Past" Master, Worshipful Brother Tony Hernandez! Our Lodge was left in tremendously great shape in every way possible thanks to WB Hernandez' leadership, fundraising prowess, and extra-fun leadership style! Phoenicia is surely becoming the envy of all Lodges in Phoenix-Metro and the State. Best of luck to WB Hernandez is his transition into District Deputy Grand Master for our District.

I was also extremely humbled this past month to be accepted into Saguario Council #367 of the Allied Masonic Degree's of Arizona. <http://azyr.org/index.php/allied-masonic-degrees>. The AMD is a 27-member, invitation-only, group of Freemasons who are interested in the advancement of all Masonry, preparing themselves to better serve the Craft through the medium of study and research. By limiting the membership in a Council and securing membership only by invitation, the result is a congenial group able to enjoy full fellowship when meeting together. Wherever there is an active Council of Allied Masonic Degrees, it exerts an influence for the betterment of Freemasonry in all the Masonic Bodies. Phoenicia now has 2-Brothers on this Council, myself and our Brother Chaplin Joe Pappas, who nominated me for membership. Thank you, Bro. Pappas, for this opportunity.

Finally, Brethren – enjoy the Holidays this year. Take time to slow down, look around, and take-in all the manifold blessings and comforts that surround each and every one of us. We're all so extremely fortunate and so blessed to have the friends, family, and Brothers in our Lodge that we do. Remember to put your Faith first this holiday season, have Hope in the New Year, and practice your Charity, brothers – help those that are less fortunate than you.

Christopher West

Christmas Poem courtesy of Bro. David Hunter from Dekalb Lodge #44 in Illinois

*'Twas the Night before Christmas, and down at the Lodge
Not a gavel was stirring, and in the hodge-podge*

*Of aprons and jewels and chairs East and West
You could savor the silence, most gladly divest*

*All metal and mineral, it mattered not,
Since Christmas was nigh and the coals were still hot.*

*In the hearth of your homeplace, all Masons abed,
As visions of trestleboards danced in their head;*

*When up on the roof there arose such a clatter
Our Tiler jumped up to see what was the matter!*

*He picked up his sword and ran fast to the door,
Three knocks shook the panels — he wondered “What for?”*

*He answered the knocking with raps of his own,
And once the door opened he saw, with a moan*

*Of delight it was Santa, all jolly and red
Except for one notable feature instead!*

*Upon his large finger he wore what we knew
Was compasses and square on a background of blue!*

*“Why Santa!” he shouted and lowered his blade,
“I see you’re a Mason!” the Tiler relayed.*

*He looked tow’rd the Master’s most dignified chair
And said, voice near trembling, “Most Worshipful Sir*

*There’s a Gentleman properly clothed at the gate!^{SEP!}
The Master replied, “Let’s allow him — but wait!*

*You tell me a Gentleman, but I don’t see
His Apron beneath that red suit, can it be*

*Our visitor hasn’t been properly raised?
Must we offer a test that is suitably phrased?”*

*“I do beg your pardon,” ol’ Santa said quick
As he pulled up his coat and displayed not a stick*

*But a cane with engraving, two balls did appear
And oh, what an apron, he wore and held dear!*

*Adorned like the Master’s, complete with a sign
Of “Lodge Number One, the North Pole” on one line!*

*“Now let this man enter,” the Master declared,
And once in the Lodge room, the Brethren all stared,*

*For Santa was wearing a jewel not seen
For many a century — there in between*

*The fur of his coat and the splendid red collar
Gleamed two golden reindeer that shone like a dollar!*

Are actually images brought from the West*

*By my Warden, a craftsman like none in the world!”
And with a great laugh from his bag he unfurled*

*An ear of fine corn, and some oil from the East,
“My friends I have plenty, tonight we will feast*

*On all that is good! We are Masons, kind sir!”
A murmur went throughout the Lodge, quite a stir,*

*As presents and promises flew from his sack!
This Santa, a Mason, showed he had a knack*

*For making this Christmas the best you could glean,
And soon even Deacons were laughing, they’d seen*

*On this very night only happiness reigned!
This jolly Saint Nicholas quickly explained*

*That only a Mason could be so inclined
To make all kids happy, make all people find*

*A Christmas so special, yes, Santa was right!
Merry Christmas to all, and to all a good night!”*

W. Bro. Raymond Briagandi, PM – Secretary

In this edition we showcase the letter E.

Egyptian hieroglyph 𓆎	Phoenician He	Etruscan E	Greek Epsilon	Roman/ Cyrillic E

Other representations.

NATO phonetic Echo		Morse code · —
 Signal flag	 Flag semaphore	 American manual alphabet (ASL fingerspelling)	 Braille dots-15

E is the fifth letter of the English and the Latin alphabet.

€, the symbol for the euro, the European Union's standard currency unit.

E, a musical note.

E, an object-oriented programming language.

e (or e⁻) or electron, a fundamental subatomic particle.

E, a mathematical constant, also known as Euler's number and Napier's constant, a transcendental number and the base of natural logarithms, approximately equal to 2.718.

E, the symbol for energy in equations concerning mass-energy equivalence.

e- The symbol for any online communication or commerce.

It is the most commonly used letter in many languages, including Czech, Danish, Dutch, English, French, German, Hungarian, Latin, Latvian, Norwegian, Spanish, and Swedish.

Now let's look at the E in the light of Masonic education.

What is an Emblem?

This beautiful and significant word, so familiar to Masons, has historical affiliations with the original idea embodied in "mosaic work," on which something is said below. Emblem is derived from the Greek prefix en, meaning in, united with ballein, meaning cast, put. The word became applied to raised decorations on pottery, to inlay work, tessellated and mosaic work; and since such designs were nearly always formal and symbolical in character, emblem came to mean an idea expressed by a picture or design. As Bacon put it, an emblem represents an intellectual conception in a sensible image. It belongs to that family of words of which type, symbol, figure, allegory, and metaphor are familiar members. - Source: 100 Words in Masonry

The emblem is an occult representation of something unknown or concealed by a sign or thing that is known. Thus, a square is in Freemasonry an emblem of morality; a plumb line, of rectitude of conduct; and a level, of equality of human conditions.

Emblem is very generally used as synonymous with symbol, although the two words do not express exactly the same meaning. An emblem is properly a representation of an idea by a visible object, as in the examples quoted above; but a symbol is more extensive in its application, includes every representation of an idea by an image, whether that image is presented immediately to the senses as a visible and tangible substance, or only brought before the mind by words.

Hence an action or event as described, a myth or legend, may be a symbol; and hence, too, it follows that while all emblems are symbols, all symbols are not emblems. - Source: Mackey's Encyclopedia of Freemasonry.

What distinguishes esoteric from exoteric Masonry?

The secret portion of Masonry which is known only to the initiates as distinguished from exoteric Masonry or monitorial, which is accessible to all who chose to read the manuals and published works of the order. The philosophy of Pythagoras was divided into the exoteric = that which is taught to all, and the esoteric = that which is taught to a select few usually initiates trained by degrees in the mysteries. This double mode of instruction was borrowed by Pythagoras from the Egyptian priests whose theology was of a dualistic nature; esoteric and exoteric. The mystical nature of their concealed doctrines was expressed in their symbolic language and by the image of the sphinxes placed at their temple entrances. Two centuries later Aristotle adopted and modified this teaching method from Pythagoras and taught his disciples in the Lyceum at Athens. In the morning he taught about God, Nature and Life, in the evening he would lecture on more elementary subjects to a promiscuous and more mundane audience. These he would call his morning and evening walk. - Source: Masonry Defined c.1924 by Lippincott & Johnston. Pg.141.

What Is Masonic equality?

Equality, in no society is this more practiced than in the order of Freemasons, for we are all brethren and it is said that among the brethren of our order there must be the most perfect equality. We ought to be equally zealous in our duties to God and our Masonic duties especially the principle tenet of brotherly love. This is the main point of Masonic Equality to bring together men of differing class or station, to promote every good work, to collaborate and to produce nobler deeds and greater achievements. Any Mason who would dare to attempt, among the brothers, to claim the precedence which his conventional position in society may give him, would disgrace the philosophy of the order, and by doing so lay a sacrilegious hand upon the sacred bond by which we are indissolubly united to each other. - Source: Masonry Defined c.1924 by Lippincott & Johnston. Pg.140.

Why must the Masonic oath be taken without equivocation, evasion or reservation?

The words of the covenant of Masonry require that it should be made without evasion, equivocation or mental reservation. This is exactly in accordance with the law of ethics in relation to the promises made. It properly applies in this case as the covenant is a series of promises made by the candidate to the fraternity- to the brotherhood into whose association he is about to be admitted. With respect to a promise; evasion is the eluding or avoiding the terms of the promise and this is done or attempted to be done by equivocation, which is by giving to the words used, a secret signification different from that in which they were intended to convey. And by mental reservation, which is the concealment or withholding in the mind of the promiser of certain conditions under which he makes those promises. Further, these conditions are not made known to the one to whom the promises are made. All of this is in direct violation of the law of veracity (Truth). The rule of Masonry requires that the words of the covenant be taken in the patent sense in which they were intended by the ordinary use of language to convey. It adheres to the true rule of ethics expressed this way; (A promise is binding in the sense in which the promiser supposed the promisee to have received it). - Source: Masonry Defined c.1924 by Lippincott & Johnston. Pg.140.

Why do Masons wear evergreens at funerals?

An evergreen plant is a symbol of the immortality of the human soul. The Ancients and Moderns both planted evergreens at the heads of the graves of the departed. Alternatively, Freemasons wore evergreens at the funerals of their brethren and cast them into the grave upon the coffin. The acacia is the plant which should be used on these occasions, but whereas it cannot be obtained in certain areas, other evergreens such as cedar may be used. - Source: Masonry Defined c.1924 by Lippincott & Johnston. Pg. 143.

The officers of Phoenicia Lodge No. 58 express their gratitude to all the brethren who have served the Lodge as Masters and who continue to serve as Past Masters. They who have gone before us have laid the foundation and the lower stories of the speculative building that we call "Phoenicia Lodge" for which we are indebted. We especially thank those Past Masters who continue to serve the Lodge that we may ever continue to build a magnificent edifice, in service to mankind and to the Great Architect who has given us every good and great thing and whose forgiveness we all rely upon.
