

Adrienne Nye - Biography

Adrienne Nye is a multi-talented singer-songwriter and producer based in Vancouver, known for her mezzo-soprano vocal range and versatile musical style that encompasses pop, folk, synthwave, chillwave, downtempo, synthpop, and melodic techno. With a strong background in both arts and science, Adrienne is not only a gifted singer, songwriter, and musician but also the proud owner of Marigold Music Inc. and Yaletown Records.

Adrienne's musical journey includes her time as a Singer and Songwriter for Fallow State (formerly Porteau Cove), a West Coast folk band based in Vancouver. During her tenure with the band, they released two EPs, won the 2019 Whistler Music Search Competition, and performed at various events and venues across Vancouver and the Lower Mainland, including the Harmony Arts Festival in West Vancouver.

Her musical talents extend beyond vocals, as Adrienne has also showcased her skills on Bassoon and Trumpet during her early years, playing with youth orchestras and bands such as the West Island Youth Symphony Orchestra and Centennial Academy Senior Jazz Band. Her experience as Young Cossette and Young Eponine in Les Miserables further highlights her versatility and depth as a performer, having worked with renowned show writers and performed in both English and French.

Adrienne's passion for music also led her to excel as a Chorist and Soprano with the F.A.C.E. Treble Choir, where she participated in numerous professional performances across Quebec and Ontario. Additionally, her background in dance, including training at the National Ballet School and performances with the National Ballet of Canada, showcases her dedication to excelling in many art forms.

In addition to her impressive musical journey, Adrienne is affiliated with the Songwriters Association of Canada, AFM | VMA, UBCP | ACTRA, SOCAN, and UDA, highlighting her commitment to the music and entertainment industry as a professional. As the Owner and Director of Yaletown Records & Marigold Music Inc., Adrienne is dedicated to creating a supportive and nurturing environment for other artists to grow and thrive, offering a range of services such as Songwriting Workshops, Recording, Music Production, Management and Mentorship and In-Studio Training Programs.

With her diverse talents, unwavering devotion to music and the arts, and commitment to supporting fellow artists, Adrienne Nye continues to make a significant impact in the music industry, leaving a lasting legacy through her artistry and entrepreneurial spirit. Visit adriennenye.com and yaletownrecords.com to learn more about this extraordinary artist.