FLOWERS, PINOT NOIR, SONOMA COAST, 2020
$100

Among the first to see the potential for growing world-class Pinot Noir and Chardonnay along the fog-shrouded Pacific Ocean, The House of Flowers has refined our understanding of our estate properties with each passing vintage. Sometimes referred to as the “far” Sonoma Coast, our rugged, windswept vineyards represent extreme viticulture in the pursuit of crafting wines representative of time and place. A beautiful mix of red and blue fruit on the nose unfolds with distinctive layers of violets, spice notes, and the fresh, haunting quality of an evergreen forest. Hints of blueberries join a burst of cherry on the palate, grounded and brightened in equal measure by fine-grained tannins and deliciously juicy acidity.

BURLY, CABERNET SAUVIGNON, SCIANDRI VINEYARD, NAPA VALLEY, 2016
$175

The name for BURLY originates from founder Hank McCrorie's college football days, when he was dubbed “Burly Bear” by the local paper. The oak tree display on the label is not only a symbol connecting the McCrorie's childhoods – Hank growing up surrounded by the beautiful southern live oaks of North Carolina and Bernice the sprawling live oak trees at the family ranch in Northern California – but also embodies the intrinsic flavors of tannins and oak, balanced by the beauty of its velvety, rich and flavorful layers. Aromas of dark plum, cassis and anise meld seamlessly with savory dried herbs. The mouth transforms into raspberry sweetness and a mineral note. This palate coating wine has a great toasted oak long finish.

CHATEAU MUSAR BEKAA VALLEY RED, LEBANON 2001
$125

Musar is one of the world's most cherished estates, and this is their Grand Vin, a singular wine that combines the breadth and spice of a mature Châteauneuf-du-Pape, the aromatic lift of a balsamic-like Brunello, and the savory muscle of an aged Barolo. It is the kind of bottle that demands a slow, measured experience, and in time reveals many expressions—and an air of antiquity, thanks to its Fertile Crescent origins.

ALTAMURA, CABERNET SAUVIGNON, NAPA VALLEY 1997
$300

Altamura Vineyards and Winery, established in 1985 by Frank and Karen Altamura, is the only winery in Wooden Valley located within the Napa Valley appellation. This classic vintage of 1997 Cabernet Sauvignon shows light rustic aromas of funky raspberry, smoke and meat just covered in barnyard and a touch of green pepper. The palate is much more earthy and shows touches of dark cherry and dark chocolate on the back end.
