

Why do THEY hate me?

People I don't know hate me. I am puzzled by this as I have been around for several decades and always thought I was a decent fellow, even a likeable guy. I like walks on the beach, pina colodas and sex on a rainy afternoon. I like children, well not all children. There is one brat in the front pew in church that refuses to take his parents to the crying room. Yes, we have a crying room in church. Do we have a smoking room? Nooooooo.

There are the pro-abortion cult members. They hate me because I don't think we should kill children – not even the brat in the front pew. I know there can be a medical reason to save the life of the mother and victims of rape, but that's it. Using abortion as a contraceptive procedure is not what Bill Clinton had in mind when he spoke in favor of legal abortion. Second of all, I don't want to pay for abortions. Using my tax dollars for abortions is against the law – the Hyde Amendment. I don't hate these cult members, I hate their actions.

Then there is the pro-mutilate children tribe. They hate me because I don't want them to cut the penises off little boys and breasts off little girls. The tribal members are insane. But what is worse are the parents and doctors – they are criminals. There are tribes in Africa that mutilate girls by cutting their clitoris. People were up in arms about this for years trying to prevent this ritual from being performed in certain cities in the United States. Do I hate these people – maybe.

Then we have the pro-illegal alien fanatics who hate me. Granted some of these people I know – and some well. I don't hate them back, because their thought process is stunted. First, they either don't know the law or don't want to follow it. Secondly they're afraid a friend or a relative is going to get deported – I don't care – which is why I am hated. They do not see the immorality of favoring illegal aliens over those who migrated here legally. They also do not see that they are paying for illegal aliens out of their pockets. Yes, tax dollars are their money as well as mine. I ask them a few simple questions.

When you graduated from high school or your child did, were you or they provided a free cell phone, free apartment, free medical plan, a free debit card and free food? The legal immigrant didn't get it either. While the high school or college grad struggles to find an affordable apartment, healthcare and eat three meals a day, these pro-illegal alien imbeciles hate me for wanting to spend my money on U.S. citizens. Do some illegal aliens work and provide for themselves? Sure, but they are taking jobs from legal immigrants and citizens. There are nitwits protesting the deportation of illegal aliens who have killed, raped and assaulted people. Now we are getting close to reciprocal hate.

Next are the anti-Americans who hate me because I am pissed that they support terrorists like Hamas in Gaza. These anti-American haters need to leave the country and go help the Gazans who support Hamas. I don't care that these people hate me because they side with the enemy of our country. Hamas is a designated terrorist organization supported by the people in Gaza. If these pro-Hamas people want to save the Gazan people go to Gaza – and take the university administrations with you.

No, I don't think the LGBTQxyz people hate me, but they are upset that I don't think they should have more rights than me. No, I do not support gay marriage, but I don't care what they do in their private lives. I am respectful of those who want to cohabitate – just don't call it marriage. It is disrespectful as the main purpose of marriage was procreation. Sorry, that can't happen with both partners having the same chromosomes. Tell me Riddler - why do we set aside a whole month to recognize homosexual people and only two days for veterans? No citizen should have more rights than another.

Haters ~~seem~~ are really stupid. They hate me because I agree with President Trump to stop crime in American cities. President Trump targeted Washington D.C. the nations capital and a federal city to bring crime to a halt. He mobilized the National Guard to assist the local and federal police agencies to clear out the homeless and bring crime to a halt. Yet the haters are in favor of maintaining the crime level as it is and walking around the vagrants lying in the park and on the streets. Instead of working with the White House to make the Nation's Capital safe they protest and file lawsuits.

Now to the BIG HATERS. I am MAGA. The step-child of Satan himself. I must be tarred, feathered and hung by the neck until dawn. I voted for smaller government, lower taxes, secured border, economic prosperity, safe cities and less wars. So far, I am winning, and HATERS hate winners.
