

NSS Special Camp 2021-22: Information to UASR News Bulletin

The National Service Scheme special camp 2021-22 was organised at the village Elebicchhali from 13th February 2022 to 19th February 2022 by the NSS units of College of Agriculture, Raichur. The intention of the camp was to build volunteership, patriotism and service to mankind. The camp also intended on discipline, time management, hard work and National integration which made the students personally strong.

The special camp was inaugurated on 14th of February by our Director of Education, Dr. M. G. Patil. The camp was oriented towards early morning flag hoisting followed by yoga, breakfast, physical cleaning of different parts of the village, hearing to arranged lectures, recreation in the evening and dinner. The Environment Awareness Campaign was held through rally by the active participation of students from the high school along with our students as well. There was tree planting programme and also Youth Day celebration through blood donation camp. The camp also facilitated “Mind games for stress management” to students, programme of health, constitution awareness, women empowerment, leadership skills, accupressure and Importance of Agriculture in Education by eminent speakers such as Dr. Pranesh Kulkarni, Sri Madhav Rao Kulkarni, Madam Vijayalakshmi Dasodi, Smt Saroja, Sri Rakesh Rajalbandi, Sri Basavaraj and Dr. Malla Reddy.

The NSS programme officers, Dr. T. C. Suma and Dr. Vishwanatha S managed the student activities with the support of Dr. Shekar Patil, NSS Co-ordinator & the Dean (Agri) Dr. Satyanarayana Rao. The officers of the University of Agricultural Sciences, Raichur visited the camp on various days. Among them, Dr. D. M. Chandaragi, Dr. S. B. Goudappa, Dr. M. Bheemanna, Dr. Jagruthi Deshamanya, Dr. A. S. Halepyati, Dr. Rajanna and other UAS Scientists were invited as guests for various programmes. The villagers enjoyed the cultural programme conducted every evening and appreciated our students for their hard work and good effort. At the end, members of the village panchayat felicitated NSS Programme officers for their active involvement and service orientation towards the village. The students were awarded certificates as a token of appreciation for their respective talents.

