The month of November has for centuries had a special emphasis on praying for the dead. "In praying for the dead," Pope Saint John Paul II said, "the Church above all contemplates the mystery of the Resurrection of Christ, who obtains salvation and eternal life for us through his cross."

As we pray this month for all the faithful departed, let us also pray for one another, that the Lord will console all who sorrow and give his peace that surpasses all understanding.

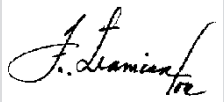

I always remember the words of Saint Francis of Assisi during the month of November: All praise be yours, My Lord, through Sister Death from whose embrace no mortal can escape.

The ties of love that bind us do not dissolve with death, indeed, the love that we share with others continues.

From the very beginning the Church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers for them, above all the Eucharistic sacrifice of the Mass. There are many ways we can remember the faithful departed who have gone ahead of us, including remembrance of them at Mass, acts of charity and penance.

My sisters and brothers, I invite you to please use the ALL SOULS offering envelope found in your envelope packets by writing the names of your deceased (whether you place a donation in it or not) so we may remember your loved ones as we gather as a parish family during this month of remembering those we hold close to our heart. All envelopes will be placed on the altar. You may find extra envelopes near the Book of the Names of Dead for those who do not receive envelopes.

Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domine, et lux perpetua luceat eis.
Requiescant in pace.
