MANAGEMENT DISSUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

1. OVERVIEW OF THE ECONOMY

Global Economy

Global economy growth continued to stagnate following slow trades, low investments and policy uncertainties in advanced economies. Major global events during the year included United Kingdom's decision to leave the European Union and the outcome of presidential elections in United States of America both the events are expected to have long-term effects on the global economy. Global growth projected to grow at around 6.5% in 2018-19. Growth in emerging markets and developing economies is expected to pick up in 2018 on the back of fiscal stimulus measures in developed economies and narrowing of divergence between commodity exporters and importers. The main factors that could possibly weigh on the medium-term growth prospects across many emerging markets and developing economies are weak investments, below par levels of productivity coupled with heightened policy uncertainty, and protectionist pressures.

Indian Economy

India's textiles sector is one of the oldest industries in Indian economy dating back several centuries. Even today, textiles sector is one of the largest contributors to India's exports with approximately 10 percent of total exports. The textiles industry is also labour intensive and is one of the largest employers. The textile industry has two broad segments. First, the unorganised sector consists of handloom, handicrafts and sericulture, which are operated on a small scale and through traditional tools and methods. The second is the organised sector consisting of spinning, apparel and garments segment which apply modern machinery and techniques such as economies of scale.

The Indian textiles industry is extremely varied, with the hand-spun and hand-woven textiles sectors at one end of the spectrum, while the capital intensive sophisticated mills sector at the other end of the spectrum. The decentralised power looms/ hosiery and knitting sector form the largest component of the textiles sector. The close linkage of the textile industry to agriculture (for raw materials such as cotton) and the ancient culture and traditions of the country in terms of textiles make the Indian textiles sector unique in comparison to the industries of other countries. The Indian textile industry has the capacity to produce a wide variety of products suitable to different market segments, both within India and across the world.

Market Size

The Indian textiles industry, currently estimated at around US$ 120 billion, is expected to reach US$ 230 billion by 2020. The Indian Textile Industry contributes approximately 4 per cent to India's Gross Domestic Product (GDP), and 14 per cent to overall Index of Industrial Production (IIP).

The total area under cultivation of cotton in India is expected to increase by 7 per cent to 11.3 million hectares in 2018-19, on account of expectations of better returns from rising prices and improved crop yields during the year 2017-18.

The global trade in the apparel segment is expected to grow at a CAGR of 5% and the global textiles trade is projected to grow at a CAGR of 3% over 2016-26. Fabric is expected to lead the category, followed by yarns and fibre.

Currently, the domestic textiles industry contributes 10% to the manufacturing output of the country, generates about 4% to its GDP and employs more than 45 million people. Importantly, the sector contributes 15% to the export earnings of India. Mitigating the repercussions of currency fluctuation remains a challenge. Exports have been a core feature of India's textile sector. The Indian textiles export market, estimated at $18 billion, is expected to grow at a CAGR of 4% compared to the global CAGR of 3% over 2016-26.

2. ANALYSIS AND REVIEW

Global textile and apparel industry

The global textile and apparel industry will continue to grow along with growing consumption of textile and apparel products in developing countries and a gradual economic recovery of major developed economies. Geography-wise, while the apparel market is still largely dominated by the European Union and the US, countries like China, India and Russia are emerging as future destinations for apparel consumption. The high growth in the market is expected to be primarily driven by the increase in population as well as per capita apparel spending of the already large population in these countries.

Given stronger than expected economic activity in 2017, the IMF has revised its growth forecast for the United States from 2.3% to 2.7% in 2018 and from 1.9% to 2.5% in 2019.

Indian Textile & Apparel industry

Textile Industry:

The Indian textiles industry is one of the oldest industries of the country. The textile industry has two broad segments. First, the unorganised sector consisting of handloom, handicrafts and sericulture and the second is the organised sector consisting of spinning, weaving, knitting, garments and home textiles segment. The industry has a major contribution to the national economy in terms of direct and indirect employment generation and net foreign exchange earnings. The sector contributes 14% to industrial production, 4% to India's Gross Domestic Product (GDP) and 15% to the country's export earnings. It is the second largest employment provider in the country.

The company holds a dominant position in the Indian textiles market as a B2C branded player for suiting and shirting fabrics. In the Suiting, category, the company has been a prominent player since nine decades whereas in the Shirting business, it has become the largest OTC player in the organized shirting segment within two years of its launch.

Apparel Industry:

The domestic apparel market which is expected to grow at a CAGR of approx 9.7% over 2018-26 driven by increase in both the per capita consumption and the average spends on apparel. Currently, at 41% Men's wear is the biggest category in the Indian apparel market; however the rate of growth in women's wear and kid's wear has been rapid. It is estimated that, within another decade, the Women's wear category will rival the Men's wear.

The company is among the top three branded players in the menswear apparel industry in India with portfolio of four power brands namely Raymond Ready to Wear, Park Avenue, ColorPlus and Parx. These four power brands cater to the entire spectrum of men's wardrobe across various price points.

The up-gradation of technology in the industry has led to emergence of new trend of "Smart Garments". Currently, the wearable technology market mainly consists of wearable devices such as fitness bands, smart watches. But, recently there has been a shift towards smart garments among premium and luxury customers The Company is focusing on product innovations to make its products more relevant to today's consumer market. In last couple of years, it has launched many new and innovative products such as Techno smart, Techno stretch, light weight jackets, auto fit shirts and others.

Overall, the government has been supportive in encouraging textile industry in India. Many incentives and schemes have been announced in the Union Budget to promote the sector. Further, introduction of GST is seen as positive step as it will result in 'Fibre-neutrality effect' on the sector. With the right government policies, we believe that the Indian Textile Industry is well poised to benefit from the large opportunity offered in the domestic and export market.

3. Opportunities & Threats:

Positive steps taken by the Central Government for the textile industry, from allocation of funds to giving extra rebate to exporters (mainly on made-ups) and various other benefits, are expected to improve investment in this sector and provide more business opportunities in the near future.

With increasing capacities of man-made fibres as compared to cotton, the preferred shift of the consumer to use products of man-made fibres i.e. viscose, polyester, polyamide, acrylic etc. and its blends, is expected. Presently in India, the consumption of textile products is approx 65% made of cotton and 35% made of man-made fibres as against the reverse trend overseas.

4. Outlook:

The trend in India is also shifting towards use of man-made fibre products. In order to satisfy the taste of customers in future, we have developed innovative products with man-made fibre and its blends which have been appreciated and approved by the customers.
